The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That on July 16 he sent out the Memorial on the Baptismal Office, as adopted at the last Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 36 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 219 due, many of them being very incomplete. That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1928: Atonement, Morton; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, except S. John, Northern Liberties, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

* Received later.

Chancellor of the Diocese: Mr. Roland S. Morris.

Registrar of the Diocese: The Rev. Arnold H. Hord.

The Rev. L. M. Robinson addressed the Convention in re Printing of the new Prayer Book.

The Rev. W. C. Pugh presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Forty-fifth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on April 22, 1929, at the call of the Convener and organized by the election of the Rev. J. O. McIlhenny, D.D., as Chairman and the Rev. Walter C. Pugh as Secretary.

The Committee considered the application for approval of its proposed Charter and admission into union with the Convention of "Resurrection (Church) Mayfair."

The Committee finds that this Church is a congregation having its place of worship in Mayfair, Philadelphia County, and that it has been duly organized in conformity with the Canon of the Diocese regulating the organization of new Parishes.

That the proposed Charter is in proper form, being substantially in that of the approved Form of Charter and that it conforms to the requirements of the Canons and of Article IV, Sec. 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese.

That the proposed Charter has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention and that the said Church be admitted a member of the Convention, and offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the application of "Resurrection (Church) Mayfair" and its proposed Charter of Incorporation be approved, and the said Church be admitted to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

By order of the Committee,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Secretary called the names of the Lay Deputies.

Mr. Pugh continued the Report.

The Committee reports that it has considered the application of "St. Paul's Church at Chestnut Hill" for an approval of Amendments to their Charter changing the number of Vestrymen and making sundry other changes.

The proposed amendments have been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee and the Committee on Charters finds that the Charter as amended conforms substantially to the Approved Form of Charter and offers the following resolution thereon:

RESOLVED, That the application of "St. Paul's Church at Chestnut Hill" for approval of certain amendments to their Charter be approved by the Convention.

By order of the Committee,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Pugh continued the Report.

The Committee reports that it has considered the application of "The Church of The Holy Comforter, Philadelphia," changing the name of the Corporation to "The Church of The Holy Comforter, Aronimink," and making sundry other changes in their Charter.

The proposed amendments have been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters finds that the Charter as amended conforms substantially to the Approved Form of Charter, and offers the following resolution thereon:

RESOLVED, That the application of "The Church of The Holy Comforter, Philadelphia," for approval of certain amendments to their Charter, be approved by the Convention.

By order of the Committee,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Pugh continued the Report.

The Committee reports that it has considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Calvary Church, Germantown," for approval of amendments to their Charter, changing the name of the Corporation to "Calvary Church, Germantown," and making sundry other changes in the articles.

The proposed amendments have been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters finds that the Charter as amended agrees substantially with the approved Form of Charter. The Committee notes, however, that in Article 9, in the paragraph covering the dissolution of the Parish, the wording is agreeable to the form in effect before the Convention of 1928, rather than with the form of that paragraph as amended at that Convention.

The Committee offers the following resolution thereon:

RESOLVED, That the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Calvary Church, Germantown," for approval of certain amendments to their Charter, be approved by the Convention.

By order of the Committee,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Granville Taylor presented by Title the

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY
WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1929, 9.30 A. M.

The Convention reassembled as above, the Bishop in the Chair.

The President opened the Session with prayer.

On motion, the Reading of the Rough Minutes for Tuesday was dispensed with, as they had been already read.

The Chair stated that question having arisen as to the legality of the elections held on Tuesday afternoon, because of the number of Parishes voting, a count of the Registration of Parishes on Tuesday had been made, which showed that only 95 Parishes had registered and that therefore the necessary majority had voted for those declared elected and the elections were valid.

The Rough Minutes as read on Tuesday afternoon were approved.

The Rev. L. N. Caley asked permission to withdraw the name of Mr. C. M. Chestnut as a Nominee for the Executive Council, which was granted.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to cast the Clerical Ballot for the election of Mr. Howard Wood, Jr., as the sixth member of the Executive Council, and Mr. W. H. F. Read to cast the Lay Ballot, which, having been done, the Chair declared Mr. Wood elected.

The Rev. L. N. Caley presented the amended

I want to call your attention to the Pictorial Supplement in THE CHURCH NEWS, copies of which have been distributed. This gives an interesting survey of what has been accomplished in the past two years.

The Diocesan Campaign

In accordance with the request of the Convention I am filing herewith the Report of the Diocesan Campaign which shows that during the first two years our receipts were close to a million dollars and that we paid out in the same period for our Missions and Institutions over $900,000—the balance being allocated for work this year.

As a result of the Campaign I report that during the Convention year:

I dedicated the new Nurses' Home and the Superintendent's House at the Home for Consumptives.

We have erected the new Out-Patient Building at the Episcopal Hospital and also the Men's Dormitory. The Out-Patient Department is now opened and will be able to care for 300,000 patient visits a year. The facilities for treatment comprises the best modern Dispensary equipment. The Campaign is not paying the entire expenses of these buildings, but we have allocated $400,000 towards them, of which $150,000 has been paid and $100,000 additional will be paid this year.

We have erected:

A unit of a Church and Parish House for the Redeemer, Springfield, and for The Resurrection, Mayfair;

A unit of a Parish building for S. George's, Venango;

A Parish House for the Church of the Advent, Hatboro;

A Parish House for S. Mary's, Chester;

Assisted in the erection of a Parish House for S. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming;

Built a new Church for S. John the Evangelist, Essington;

Added a second story to S. Gabriel's on the Boulevard;

Rebuilt the Holy Innocents, Tacony;

Purchased the Church of the Holy Comforter, West Philadelphia, for the use of S. Monica's colored congregation, thus enabling the Holy Comforter to move to its new location at Aronomink, where the first unit of a building is under construction.

Plans are under consideration for:

The Church of the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park.

Parish Houses for: S. John the Evangelist, South Philadelphia; Holy Trinity, Lansdale; S. Ambrose; and a Rectory and addition to the Church of S. James, Prospect Park.

The property of S. Giles, at Sixty-ninth and Chestnut Streets, has been sold for $185,000 and a Church, Parish Building and Rectory will be erected on a new site in Stonehurst. The ground on which the basement of the Chapel has been located was purchased about ten years ago for $8000. Out of the proceeds of the sale we will be able to erect the entire group of buildings and leave a balance for an endowment fund. I may frankly state to the Convention that our action in using all the proceeds of the sale for the benefit of S. Giles does not establish a precedent. When Mission property owned by the Diocese and erected from funds raised by it is sold, we cannot always agree to invest the entire amount of the sale in a new site and buildings in the same neighborhood. I mention this fact so that our action in this case will not be taken as a precedent.

Looking back on the two years of the Diocesan Campaign and realizing how much it has done we are more than ever impressed with the encouragement and help it has given to the Institutions and Missions of our Diocese. As a striking example I refer to the Mission of the Resurrection, Mayfair. Less than two years ago a Sunday School was started under the charge of the Rector at Holmesburg. As a result of the Campaign we purchased a lot and last year awarded the contract for a Parish Building. On Easter Day of this year I dedicated the new building. There was a congregation of about 300. It was the first service in the building and included the dedication, Confirmation and the celebration of the Holy Communion, at which about 150 communicants received. The Mission has applied to this Convention for admission as a Parish.

Such a record could be duplicated in several other places in the city and suburbs if we were able to take advantage of our opportunities. In many of the other parts of our great city, on account of the changing conditions and the large number of Churches, the congregations are steadily diminishing, and many of the new sections of the city and suburbs have no Church in which our people can worship.

Parish Improvements

The most noteworthy event in the history of our Parishes during the past year has been the erection of the New S. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, which will be opened for Divine worship on Whitsunday. The cost of the Church and the addition to the Parish House was about $550,000, of which $400,000 was contributed last year. A committee is now engaged in raising the balance. The acre of ground adjoining the Church has been purchased to give a better setting to the group of buildings. I am sure that I express the feeling of every member of this Convention in congratulating the rector of S. Paul's Church on this great achievement, made possible through the hearty co-operation of his Vestry and congregation.

A new Parish House has also been erected and dedicated at S. Paul's Church, Aramingo, and a Parish House dedicated for Holy Trinity Polish Church, Conshohocken. I also consecrated the new Parish House and dedicated the rebuilt Church of S. John's, Norristown, to which reference was made last year, and dedicated the Lady Chapel at Holy Nativity, Rockledge.

Cathedral

At first sight it may seem as if we made little progress towards the building of a Cathedral as it was first talked of in the Episcopate of Bishop Whitaker. Philadelphia will be the last of the first-class cities in America to erect a Cathedral. The first definite step was taken by Bishop Rhinelander when the Cathedral Charter was obtained in 1921. The Convention formally approved this Charter in 1924 and designated the Cathedral Church of Christ as the Cathedral Foundation of this Diocese.

The selection of a proper site had to be proceeded with very carefully, as we wanted to select one that would be large enough not only for a Cathedral Church, but also for many Diocesan Institutions. The Chapter also considered that, as the Cathedral will be built not for the City of Philadelphia, but for the Diocese, it was desirable instead of being located in or near the geographical center of the city, it should be placed near the center of the population of Philadelphia and the surrounding territory. The site finally selected is the center of such territory within a radius of fifteen miles from Philadelphia, and within the next five years it will be the center of the homes of four million people.

At the Convention of 1927 I officially notified the delegates that we had purchased the site in Upper Roxborough and, after this notification, at my suggestion the Convention adopted some changes in the Canon providing for the election of Canons and for the adoption of a by-law or resolution by the Chapter, instead of a change in the Charter. I reported to the last Convention the adoption of such a resolution so that all the Canonical changes suggested by the Convention have been carried out.

Since we acquired the site over two years ago, arrangements have been made through an agreement between the Hon. Henry G. Watson and the Trustees of the Diocese (now The Church Foundation) so that a Lady Chapel can be erected on the Cathedral site. The money for this is provided. I also hope to have a Carillon Tower with bells erected and we have been informed that the residuary estate of the late Martha B. Hay will provide a memorial on the site in memory of Mrs. Hay and her husband, the late James Hay. This will probably take the form of a Chapter House. The money for it is also provided.

I am glad to inform the Convention that I know of several Wills which have been made leaving bequests to be used on the Cathedral site.

Two months ago I announced in THE CHURCH NEWS that we were preparing a preliminary study of the site. We have not selected an architect to design any building to be erected on the site, but it is important to have a careful study made showing where the various groups of buildings should eventually be erected. It will take a long period of expert study on the part of the members of the Chapter before any definite conclusions can be reached and there is no intention at the present time of selecting an architect for any of the buildings. When we make a start at the Cathedral site, it will be by the erection of such buildings as I have indicated. In the few years of work left to me the utmost that I can hope to do is to erect the buildings for which the money is provided. During my life-time a Chancel may be built if the funds are provided for such purpose. If erected, it will be used as a Church until such time as the Cathedral is erected, when it will become the Chancel. The building of a Cathedral is a question for the future. It will take years of planning, and buildings will only be erected as the money is raised for them. There is no intention ever to ask the Convention of the Diocese to make an appropriation towards the expenses of the Cathedral Chapter or for the support of services in the buildings that are erected. The Diocese has never assumed such an obligation. The Chapter has been careful to proceed in every step just as the Chapter in New York proceeded and also that in Washington, so that the Convention of the Diocese shall not incur any financial obligation in connection with the project. It is, of course, the intention of the Chapter that no buildings connected with the Cathedral shall be erected, until the Chapter has sufficient funds for such building, and endowments to take care of the running expenses.

The Rectors and Wardens of Parishes have been officially notified of the new apportionment for Missions. The members of this Convention know that for years our Diocese has insisted that the method of apportionment used by the National Council was not equitable or just; the whole matter was carefully considered at the last General Convention and a new system adopted which the representatives of this Diocese considered fair and equitable. As the General Convention gave full consideration to the claims that we have been making for years and adopted an apportionment which applies to all Diocese and Missionary jurisdictions, it seemed only fair that we should undertake to raise our apportionment. It will mean an increase of about $40,000 over the amount normally received.

Apportionment for General Missions

The majority of our Parishes and Missions give the amount of their apportionment. If all would make a sincere effort to raise it there would be no doubt whatever of the result. It is true that there are a few Parishes and Missions which under any system adopted will fail to reach their apportionment. If we would forget the money side of it and think of it from the standpoint of Missionary effort I believe it would clarify the whole situation. If our congregations are to have any real part in the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God in our own Diocese and in the Domestic and Foreign fields, then they must have some share in sending Missionaries to do the work, in Churches, in Hospitals, in Schools. It should be the ambition of every Parish to give, for the Missionary work of the Church in the Diocese and in the Domestic and Foreign Field, an amount equal to that spent in the Parish itself; but surely the least that should be given is the equivalent of the salary of the Rector and his Assistants for work in the Diocese, and an equal amount for the Missionary work of our National Church. I do hope that every Rector and Vestryman, as well as the members of their congregations, will seriously consider whether as congregations they are doing as much as they ought for the Missionary work of the Church, compared with what they spend upon themselves.

I am also satisfied that we would get a much better response to our Missionary appeals, if each Parish had an Every-Member Canvass, and if during the month previous to such an effort our Rectors would give full information to the people about the Missionary work of the Church in the Diocese and in the Domestic and Foreign Field. The facts should be so presented as to arouse their interest and above all to try to deepen the spiritual life of our people so that they might feel and know that the progress of our Missionary work is vital in the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God.

The women and children of Pennsylvania are keeping up the splendid record of their gifts. The Lenten Offering of the children this year will equal that of last year, about $73,000. At the General Convention the total amount of the United Offering from this Diocese was over $94,000, thus establishing a new high record and almost one-tenth of the total gift. The Woman's Aid to the Convocations in the Diocese have also paid in full during the past two years their pledges to the Diocesan Campaign.

The memorial Chapel of The Atonement of the Church Farm School was consecrated last June. A memorial organ, given by Mr. and Mrs. Roland L. Taylor, is being installed at the present time and will be dedicated next month.

The Church Farm School

The School has also three legacies in the past year, one of $50,000, one of $5000, and one of $1000, all of which will be added to the endowment fund.

In former addresses to the Convention I have several times heartily commended the good work being done by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Within the past year there has been a marked revival of interest and requests have come from all over the country for information and aid in the organization of Chapters. Such interest has been reflected to some degree in this Diocese.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

In every Parish, an organization of boys in a Junior Chapter and men in a Senior Chapter can do much to help in the upbuilding of the Church, if the primary object of the Brotherhood is kept in view and manifested in Christian service. The National Commission on Evangelism has recommended the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Daughters of the King as the two organizations in the Church that can best function in Evangelistic work.

The Advancement Society has completed its 114th year. When it was organized the Diocese of Pennsylvania was conterminous with the State and according to its charter all the present Dioceses in the State share in the benefits of the fund. Grants are made to needy Parishes and Missions for the purchase of ground; reduction of debts, and building and repairs to Churches, Parish Houses and Rectories. A larger endowment would enable the Society to render greater service and it is commended to the generous consideration of our communicants.

The good work done by this Society is rarely called to the attention of our Clergy and Laity; but they should know more of the importance and value of the help given through grants to Parishes and Missions.

Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation

A few years ago in this Diocese a Church Insurance Company was organized. It accomplished some good, but did not receive the general support of the Parishes, and for the past few years it has not been functioning. Meanwhile, for several years, a group of interested persons have been considering the same subject as applied to the whole Church. For many years there has been a similar organization in the Church of England. It was largely due to the annual grant of $85,000 from the profits of the Corporation that the Church in that country was able to inaugurate its Pension System.

As the result of a comprehensive study of the fire losses of Churches, made under the auspices of the Church Pension Fund, it was decided to organize a Company to Insure Churches and other buildings and Institutions of the Church. The need for the organization of such a Company was discussed by influential groups of Clergy and Laymen called together in this Diocese, and in each of the large centers of population. It received their endorsement, and also the cordial co-operation of the corporate and personal interest of those professionally engaged in the business of Fire Insurance.

The Company is not an official Corporation of the Church created by the General Convention, so there will not be the slightest compulsion on any Parish to avail itself of the privilege of insuring in the Corporation. The stock of the Corporation will be held for the benefit of the Church and controlled by subscribing Parishes.

The object of the Corporation is to provide lower rates on fire insurance and also to give greater protection. I take this opportunity of advising you that the Charter has been granted and the Corporation duly organized a week ago. The literature describing the benefits of insuring in the Corporation will be sent out within a few weeks. Having had the opportunity to be present when the subject was considered by the Bishops,—attending some of the business meetings, and in personal conferences—I do not hesitate to heartily recommend the Corporation to our Rectors and Vestries and to express the hope that they will give the matter their careful consideration.

The Chancellor

I do not believe there is any member of this Convention who realizes the great services voluntarily rendered by the Chancellor of the Diocese, the Honorable Roland S. Morris, as our legal advisor. As Bishop of the Diocese I have to call on him for advice very frequently. Not a month passes but that several important matters arise requiring his careful consideration and counsel. We are under a great debt of gratitude to Mr. Morris and also to his partners for their willingness at all times to so generously contribute their time and service to the work of the Diocese.

From the reports made to the Convention and the records printed annually in our Journal we should also realize the important service similarly rendered by our Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer. We are also happy to say that our various Departments at the Church House are competently administered and the entire staff works together loyally and harmoniously.

Most of the Clergy are now using the changes authorized at the last General Convention in the office of the Holy Communion. It is impossible, however, to follow the changes made in all the services until the Prayer Book is printed and in the hands of the people. At the meeting of the House of Bishops last October a statement was adopted as the expression of the House from which I quote the following:

The New Prayer Book

"After fifteen years of careful study the Church is authorizing for use in public worship a revised and enriched Book of Common Prayer.

"This book is now the only authorized manual set forth by this Church for acts of corporate worship. . . .

"One of the most conspicuous perils in modern American life is a tendency to put an undue emphasis upon personal liberty, and to pay little respect to what has been set forth by duly constituted authority. There is need in the Church as in the State to sound a call to loyalty. Your Bishops, assembled in triennial session, make an appeal for a loyal recognition of our common obligation to render generous obedience in observing in their integrity the provisions of our enriched Book of Common Prayer.

"Such loyalty does not, of course, preclude, as occasions may require, special services as provided for in the rubrics of the Prayer Book or authorized by the Bishops; but it does demand of the authorized Ministers of the Church obedience to the rubrical directions of its authorized book of worship, as at all times binding upon priest and people. These rubrics and the various offices of the book are the solemn expression of the mind of this Church. To ignore or disregard them, or to set them aside and substitute other forms for them, is an obvious violation of the Church's law and order. We protest against the tendency towards an exaggerated individualism and eccentricities in devotional practice. . . . "

In accordance with the spirit of this quotation I express the hope that the Clergy of this Diocese will loyally follow these suggestions.

In the Convention of 1925 we accepted as a program that the minimum salary of our Missionaries should be increased to $2400, though at that time we actually only made the increase of $100 per year, bringing it up to $2100. The balance of the program has not been carried out, but I feel moved to say to the members of the Convention that in my opinion we should now authorize it. It is impossible for a Clergyman with a family to properly support himself at the minimum salary of $2100 and a house. When we last advanced the minimum we combined Missions as far as possible so as to reduce the expenses and give to the men a larger field at the increased salary.

Increase in Salaries

I realize that there should be some flexibility in applying the rule. There are a few places in the Diocese where perhaps we could not justify such an increase. Personally I would advise the Bishop-Coadjutor, when consecrated, to ask for recommendations from the Missionary Committee of the Convocations and the endorsement by the Department of Missions, so that in each case if an increase is given the Diocese would feel assured that the work required all the time of an active Clergyman and that the aided Parishes and Missions were doing their utmost.

I will be glad if the Convention will consider this matter and adopt a resolution making the minimum in this Diocese $2400 and a Rectory, for married Clergymen, when authorized by the Missionary Committee of the Convention, the Department of Missions; and for aided Parishes it should be the Commission on Clerical Salaries which should recommend—all subject to the approval of the Executive Council and the Bishop or the Bishop-Coadjutor, or such other provision as the Convention may adopt. This is the minimum in many Dioceses today. I think a large part of the increase would be absorbed by the Missions and the same would be true of the aided Parishes.

In conclusion I thank the members of the Convention for their attendance at the Special Meetings. We are grateful for the spirit that has prevailed and we have no reason to regret the action taken; our responsibility was fulfilled with the elections. There has been much discussion as to reasons for the declinations, but there was little gained from the expression of our opinions. If we believe, as we do, that it was God's Will, then we need not ask any questions—that should satisfy us.

Welcome to Coadjutor-elect

If the Coadjutor elected yesterday accepts we will all give him a hearty welcome. No doubt it will seem like an arduous task to take full charge of all the Missions in this Diocese, but I am sure that the Missionaries will co-operate with him in every way and then the task will grow lighter. To me the Missionary work in the Diocese was a privilege and a joy, and it will be with much regret that I transfer it to another—but I fully realize the necessity.

Even with two Bishops the impossible cannot be expected without unanimity of purpose, and the co-operation of all our people. It may be conceded that at times the few may be right when they differ radically from the vast majority, but even so it is their duty to forget their individual preferences and to work with the others in the assurance that if they are right the whole body will in time come to their standard of judgment. But, only God can do the impossible; it is as we relate our lives to the fulfilment of His purpose that we have a share in it.

The Coadjutor will eventually succeed as Diocesan. Looking forward to that time let me say impersonally that as the Bishop represents his Diocese a failure to work with him for its interest is not a personal matter, it is a failure to support the Diocese. The first loyalty of a Bishop is not even to his Diocese, but to his Master, and your first loyalty is also to Him: we all serve Christ and His Church. In that loyalty to Him let us go forward, differing as much as we must in non-essential things but in all work for God, for His Church, for His children, with serried ranks following His Divine guidance and seeking only the fulfilment of His will.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

JOSEPH HORSFALL JOHNSON, First Bishop of Los Angeles, died at his home in Pasadena, California, on May 16, 1928, in the seventy-first year of his age. He was born in Schenectady,

New York, on June 7, 1847, and received his early education in a private school in Albany. He graduated from Williams College in 1870 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1873, being made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. His various charges as Rector were: Trinity Church, Highland, New York, 1873 to 1879; Trinity Church, Bristol, 1879 to 1881; S. Peter's Church, Westville, 1881 to 1886; Christ Church, Detroit, Michigan, 1886 to 1896, serving also as Dean of the Convocation of Detroit and a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. In 1892 he declined an election as Missionary Bishop of Northern Michigan. On the formation of the Diocese of Los Angeles, he was elected to that Diocese and was consecrated on S. Matthias' Day, February 24, 1896, by Bishops Davies, Worthington and Talbot.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER GUERRY, Eighth Bishop of South Carolina, died on June 9, 1928, at Charleston, South Carolina, in his sixty-seventh year, as the result of a gun-shot wound inflicted by a super-annuated Clergyman, who was mentally deranged, on the Monday previous. He was born in Clarendon County on July 7, 1861, receiving his early education at Porter Military Academy, where he taught for some years. Deciding to study for Holy Orders, he went to the University of the South, being made Deacon in 1888 and ordained to the Priesthood the year following by Bishop Howe. From 1888 to 1893 he was Rector of Saint John's Church, Florence, with work also at Marion and Darlington. In 1893 he succeeded Bishop Gailor as Chancellor of the University of the South, acting as Chaplain and Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Care. He was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of South Carolina on September 15, 1907, becoming Bishop of the Diocese in the April following on the death of Bishop Capers. Always in deep sympathy with the work among Negroes, it was largely through his effort that a Negro Suffragan Bishop was elected about twelve years ago. He was also much interested in the question of Marriage and Divorce, the present Canon being largely his work. A wise leader and of deep spirituality, his untimely death is indeed a loss to the Church and to his Diocese.

GEORGE HERBERT KINSOLVING, Second Bishop of Texas, died at his home in Austin, Texas, on October 23, 1928, in the eightieth year of his age. He was born in Bedford County, Virginia, on April 28, 1849, receiving his education at the University of Virginia and the Theological Seminary at Alexandria. He was ordered Deacon in 1874 and ordained Priest the next year. For a few weeks he served as Assistant Minister at Christ Church, Baltimore, accepting a call to be Rector of Saint Mark's Church, in that city, in 1875. From 1878 to 1881 he was Rector of Saint John's Church, Cincinnatti, Ohio, coming to this Diocese in 1881 as Rector of the Church of The Epiphany, at Fifteenth and Chestnut Streets, where his preaching soon made him a prominent figure. From 1890 to 1892 he was a member of the Standing Committee, serving also as an Overseer of the Divinity School and on many Diocesan Boards. When the late Phillips Brooks was elected Bishop of Pennsylvania, he stood second on the ballot. On October 12, 1892, he was consecrated Assistant Bishop of Texas by Bishops Wilmer, Quintard and Whitaker, succeeding to the Bishopric four months later on the death of Bishop Gregg. For more than twenty-five years he bore alone the entire burden of the Episcopate, his powerful physique and commanding personality making him an outstanding figure in the whole State. Three times he attended the Lambeth Conferences. Of deep and strong convictions, singularly clear and powerful as a preacher, of broad culture and wide tolerance, practical and courageous, he was deeply beloved, not only in his Diocese, but wherever he went.

JOHN DOMINIQUE LAMOTHE, Second American Bishop of the Missionary District of Honolulu, died in the Church House and Infirmary, Baltimore, Maryland, on October 25, 1928, in the sixty-first year of his age. He had come from his Missionary District to attend the sessions of the General Convention, but contracted a severe cold which resulted in his death. He was born at Ramsey, Isle of Man, England, on June 8, 1868, receiving his early education at King William College, and migrating to this country at the age of seventeen years. Graduating from the Seminary at Alexandria, Virginia, in 1894, he was made Deacon by Bishop Whittle that year and ordained to the Priesthood in the year following by Bishop Newton. from 1894 to 1901 he was in charge of Saint Paul's Church, Shelbourne Parish, Hamilton, Virginia; becoming Assistant Minister at the Church of The Epiphany, Washington, in 1901, where he was also Associate Rector from 1904 to 1907; Rector of Christ Church, Saint Joseph, Missouri, from 1903 to 1904; Rector of Saint Paul's Church, New Orleans, Louisiana, 1907 to 1916; Rector of the Church of The Ascension, Baltimore, Maryland, from 1916 to 1921. On June 6, 1921, he was consecrated Bishop by Bishops Tuttle, Tucker and Murray. During his comparatively short Episcopate he had accomplished a splendid work in that far-off Missionary District and endeared himself very greatly to the native population, as well as to the many visitors in the Islands of the Pacific.

CHARLES HENRY BRENT, Fourth Bishop of Western New York, died at Lausanne, Switzerland, on March 27, 1929, of heart failure, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Newcastle, Ontario, on April 9, 1862, and received his early education in the Public Schools there and in Trinity College School, Port Hope. Graduating from the University of Trinity College, Toronto, in 1884, he was made Deacon in 1886, and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Sweatman, of Toronto. From 1885 to 1887 he was a Master at Trinity College School, accepting a Curacy at Saint Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo, New York, in 1887. From 1888 to 1891 he was a member of the Society of Saint John the Evangelist, in Boston, and Rector of Saint John's Church until 1901, and Curate at Saint Stephen's Church, Boston, from 1891 to 1901. In the latter year he was consecrated First Missionary Bishop of the Philippine Islands by Bishops Doane, Potter and Lawrence, becoming Bishop of Western New York in 1918 and serving also as Bishop of the American Churches in Europe from 1926 to 1928. In 1908 he declined the Bishopric of Washington, and in 1919 that of New Jersey. During the World War he was Chief of the Chaplain's Service, being decorated with the Distinguished Service Medal, the British Government conferring on him the honor of Companion of The Bath, and the Belgian Government Commander of the Order of Leopold. The recipient of many Degrees from Colleges and Universities, a very prolific writer and an intensely earnest spiritual leader and preacher, a Delegate to many Conferences here and in Europe, the Chairman of the Faith and Order World Conference at Lausanne, he was indeed an outstanding figure in the Christian Church. Proudly claimed as friend by people in every walk of life and in every land, consumed by the one great endeavor for the unity of Christendom, he was able to be a living reminder to thousands in an age of materialism that the things of the spirit have a greater value today than ever before, and his memory will carry on the influence which he ever exercised.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the Year 1928

The Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the year 1928, audited, is submitted herewith.

The Diocese promised the National Council for maintenance $185,000, hoping that it would be able to give an additional $15,000, a total of $200,000. The National Council proportion of the Divisible Receipts from regular sources toward this sum was $173,146.96; paid pledges on account of Special Appeal, $14,677.20; and the balance of $12,175.84 was contributed from Divisible Diocesan funds in order that the total of $200,000 could be paid in full.

The Diocese retained as its share of Divisible Receipts from regular sources $160,971.12 and refunds of $4,571.70, a total of $165,542.82 to pay its maintenance expenses of $168,933.53, showing a loss for the year of $3,390.71. Against the overdraft from 1927 of $14,083.81 there was received refunds during 1928 amounting to $5,477.76. This makes a net overdraft for 1927 of $8,606.05, which, added to the loss for the current year of $3,390.71, makes an overdraft as of December 31, 1928, of $11,996.76.

Since the books were closed we have received $1,000.00 on account of Special Appeal, also $3,069.56 from Churches and other sources, a total of $4,069.56, to be credited to 1928 Expectations, reducing the net overdraft for the year 1928 to $7,927.20 as against a net overdraft for the year 1927 of $8,606.05.

We have endeavored to reduce the overdraft each month by asking the Churches to remit monthly, or at least with greater regularity, and below is a comparative table showing the number of times remittances have been made by Churches during the years 1927 and 1928. It will be noted that there was slightly less regularity of payments in 1928 than in 1927, and as a result the amount of interest paid on overdrafts was necessarily larger. The Diocese must pay out with almost entire regularity nearly the same amounts each month, and if the Parishes do not remit with like regularity, the result is an overdraft of the account which for the months during the year 1928 is shown under item number 30.

The Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer desire to again express their grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company, for the continuation of the very advantageous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended so that overdrafts may be made, and to the Parishes and Missions and Women's Auxiliaries as well as other financial agencies of the Diocese for the ready assistance in the preparation of the records comprising this report, and to the financial staff in the Executive Office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Executive Council

Work of the Executive Office

The Executive Office, which comprises the office of the Executive Secretary and Field Secretary, the Treasurer's office and the Publicity Department, has been very busy during the past year with the following:

(1) The Treasurer's Office has received $1,086,930 and this large sum has been expended by order of the Bishop, the Diocesan Convention and the Executive Council. There is a great amount of detail work necessary to operate satisfactorily the machinery to account for the Funds that make up these receipts: (1) Missionary, (2) Episcopal, (3) Convention, (4) Sustentation, (5) Church House, (6) Bishop's Residence, (7) Christmas, (8) Church Extension, (9) Church Pension, and (10) Diocesan Campaign.

(2) Raising the missionary budget of $200,000 so that the promise made by the Diocese to the National Council could be fulfilled. Cordial thanks are due the faithful clergy and laymen and laywomen who made this possible.

(3) Supervising building contracts and oversight of operations at (1) S. John's, Essington, (2) Redeemer, Springfield, (3) Resurrection, Mayfair, (4) S. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming, (5) S. Gabriel's, Feltonville, (6) S. Mary's, Chester, (7) Holy Innocents, Tacony, (8) Transfiguration Mission, 7th and Bigler Streets, (9) Redeemer (Polish) Mission, (10) Ascension Mission, Rhawnhurst, and (11) Trinity, Collingdale. These contracts involve a total cost of approximately $300,000.

(4) Placing of fire insurance for these and other buildings belonging to the Diocese with which The Church Foundation through its insurance brokers, Messrs. Lukens, Savage and Washburn, has asked our assistance. The Church Insurance Service, Incorporated, not functioning, a great deal of this work has been added to our clerical force.

(5) Arranging for the adoption of the 1930 Budget at an earlier date so that the Parishes and Missions may have their quotas by November 1 instead of December 1 as heretofore.

(6) Obtaining all information of value to the Church and attending to its weekly publication through various reporters of our local newspapers. We would earnestly commend to the Diocese the effective handling of all publicity in the newspapers, and especially matters relating to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor. The Department of Publicity also prepares the Church Extension Fund calls and directs their distribution, and assembles necessary data for the Church News, which involves no small amount of work.

(7) The Executive Office does all this work in a painstaking and careful manner with a small but efficient force of four clerks and two stenographers with the assistance of the Executive and Financial Secretaries, and the Director of Publicity.

(8) Presenting the Missionary Cause in 78 Parishes and Missions by 37 Missionary Bishops, Clergy and Laymen. Personally, the Field Secretary is grateful for the privilege granted him by the Clergy. This has kept him busy nearly every Sunday speaking from their pulpits in behalf of the world-wide Mission of the Church.

The Department of Missions and Church Extension

This Department held nine meetings during the year. Holy Comforter, West Philadelphia, was purchased by the Diocese for St. Monica's Mission, where it is hoped a successful work will be carried on.

Our Italian work continues to be a perplexing problem. However, we feel that some progress has been made during the year. The Department recommended at its February meeting that the Church property of L'Emmanuello be sold. Since that time, S. Elisabeth's has been turned over to the Diocese and the work of L'Emmanuello will be transferred to Sixteenth and Mifflin Streets.

The Church work among the Poles is most encouraging. They have shown a real interest in the Church and have manifested it by trying to care for themselves. During the year, on their own initiative, they purchased a brewery in Conshohocken. This building has been remodelled and is now used as a Church and Parish House.

The Church Extension Fund (thanks to the work of Samuel H. Warnock, and the generous gifts of those interested) continues to be a source of valuable income to the Diocese. During the year 1928, the total receipts amounted to $10,256.76. This total includes payments in 1928 of arrears for the years 1925–26–27, amounting to $154.26, and advance payments for coming year, 1929, amounting to $57.00. Receipts from the three calls in 1928 were as follows:

January—Resurrection Mission, Mayfair	$3,522.67
April—Redeemer Mission (Polish)	3,341.65
October—Holy Sacrament, Highland Park	3,181.18

THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Department's aim is to study the field, to aid rectors, teachers, parents and other parish leaders in Christian Education, to supply the helps necessary for meeting their varied needs, to raise the standards, to encourage a juster recognition of the place of religious instruction in our educational institutions, and to share experiences; for the purpose of promoting continuous growth in the religious lives of young and old within the Church.

The Director of Religious Education, upon invitation from the Clergy, has visited Parishes and Missions throughout the Diocese, preaching, visiting schools, attending teachers' meetings, and conducting children's services. He gives generously of his time to teaching, having a class every period of each session of the Diocesan Normal School, being on the faculties of the Divinity School and the Church Training and Deaconess School, conducting parochial training classes, and serving at Summer Conferences.

The Department hopes that the Diocese will suggest ways in which we can help further to meet the needs of those engaged in the cause of Christian Education. We also wish to call the attention of the Parishes to two facts. First; The Director of Religious Education enters a parish with any of the above helps only upon the invitation of the rector of that parish. He is always ready and eager to be of service to those who request his help, but, quite evidently, he awaits your call. Second; we would be glad if those parishes that have attained certain high standards, or reached a degree of success in certain directions in their work in religious education would share their experiences with us, that others who are struggling with like problems may be encouraged and helped.

The Bulletin, the official publication of the Department, edited by Mr. Seymour, is issued five times a year, and it is gratifying to hear from far and near of the help that it is proving to the field that it serves.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

The Department reports that it officially, and through a number of its members individually, worked vigorously for the adoption of a Welfare Bond Issue by the State, which would have made available fifty millions of dollars over a period of ten years for the improvement and extension of state institutions for the better care of the insane, the feeble-minded, etc. The Bond Issue was defeated at the November election, but definite promises have been made by State Officials that generous provision will be made from current revenues for these institutions, so it is hoped that the efforts put forth for the Bond Issue will bear fruit in the better care of the unfortunate wards of the State.

A number of important conferences were held in connection with the monthly meetings of the Department in the early part of the year, continuing the series started in 1927. A general invitation was extended to a large group of interested persons to attend these meetings; among those heard were: Dr. Edward A. Strecher on "Child Psychology," Mrs. E. S. H. McCauley on "State Institutions," the Rev. William McClelland on "Social Work in Rural Communities," the Rev. Charles N. Lathrop on "Jails and Almshouses," and Mrs. Thomas Potter, Jr., on "The Moving Picture Problem."

A bad housing condition brought to the attention of the Department by the Social Service Committee of the Girls' Friendly Society was taken up with the Department of Welfare of the city by a commission of the Department, who found the city authorities very willing to do all in their power to remedy the situation.

A comprehensive survey has been prepared by the Department of the work of the Institutions of the Diocese. This survey gives some idea of the very extensive service which is being rendered to the Diocese and the Community by these institutions and in the opinion of the Department should have wide publicity.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The Publicity Department takes pleasure in reporting another year of successful operation of the Church News. For the sixth consecutive year it has not been necessary to request any financial aid from the Diocese. The business manager reports a profit of $582.47 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928. The circulation shows but little variation from the previous year.

The Department felt very deeply the severe illness suffered by its Director, Mr. Samuel H. Warnock, and rejoiced with all the others in the Diocese at his splendid recovery. We would express our sense of obligation and appreciation to the Executive Secretary, and his office assistants, and to Mr. Charles H. Clarke, the business manager, and the members of his staff, for their help in carrying on the work of the Department during the nine weeks that Mr. Warnock was in the hospital; and especially for their supervision of the editing of the Church News. Their interest and co-operation were a great relief to him during his illness and in his anxiety that the work of the Department should not suffer. We are all most grateful to them.

We feel that our Director is to be particularly commended for the services he has rendered the Diocese in the field of providing information for the public.

THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

The activities of the Department were chiefly along the financial lines during the past year. The Executive Council decided, at the outstart, to subscribe $185,000 as its share in the work of the National Council, being the amount that might be expected from the Parishes as judged by their Expectations. In addition to this, the hope was expressed that $15,000 more might be found to run the total up to $200,000.

In the course of the year, with the aid of the Executive Secretary, this money was forthcoming, and the full $200,000 paid.

In the month of June, Dr. John Wood, at a department luncheon, addressed us and after the discussion which followed agreed to send us $50,000 expressed in terms of work to be done and salaries to be paid. Our hope is that Parishes who desire to make an effort to increase their Quota payment will take $500 or $1000, representing a definite piece of work, inform their people about it, and make their appeals in terms of the cause.

THE FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

The Treasurer's Report calls attention to the final results of the business for the year. Receipts from Parishes applying on the Quota were $399,559.25 as against $411,699.14 in 1927, a decrease of $12,139.89. The Lenten Offering was $73,762.52 as against $79,279.03 in 1927, a decrease of $5,516.51. The total Divisible Funds were $346,293.92 as against $353,406.45 in 1927, a decrease of $7,112.53. From the Divisible Funds there was sent to the National Council $185,322.80 or 54 per cent, the Diocese retaining $160,971.12 or 46 per cent, as compared with $189,991.31 or 54 per cent sent to the National Council and $163,415.14 or 46 per cent retained by the Diocese in 1927. As to the Diocesan share of the joint receipts, there was an overdraft at the end of 1928 of $11,996.76. This overdraft included a net overdraft from 1927 of $8,606.05. Since the books were closed, however, there have been receipts applicable to the 1928 overdraft amounting to $4,069.56 and unpaid collectable loans totalling $7,856.85, so that against the above overdraft there are credits of $11,956.41 making a real deficit as of December 31, 1928, of but $40.35.

The Department is still experimenting with the old problem of Parochial Quotas. For the year 1929, instead of asking each Parish and Mission to contribute a flat percentage of its current expenses as reported in 1927, it has decided to adopt the same method approved by the last General Convention for determining Diocesan Quotas from data of the average Parish of the Diocese, which results in the smaller Parishes paying a lower percentage than the larger Parishes.

Executive Secretary

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION TO THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

This Department, which has on its mailing list thirty names, held nine meetings during the year and transacted such business as was referred to it from the several Convocations, together with certain other matters presented by the Rev. James Bullitt, General Missionary, and the Rev. Henry Phillips, Archdeacon.

The report of the Treasurer of the Department of Missions and a detailed account of the Missions in the several Convocations, as reported by the Deans, is attached and we recommend careful survey of the same.

We would call your attention to the new work, viz.:

Ascension, Rhawnhurst.
Transfiguration Mission, 7th and Bigler Streets.
Resurrection, Mayfair.
S. Matthew's, Oxford Circle.
Holy Comforter, in its new location at Aronimink.
And the work among the Poles, at Conshohocken.

The resolution of the February meeting should be mentioned in the annual report:

WHEREAS: The Department of Missions is of the opinion that the missionary work of the Diocese would often be much stimulated and the ministry of the Missionaries be strengthened, if the authority of changing them from Mission to Mission, where it appears well, either for the Missionary or the Mission, were more frequently exercised. Therefore be it

Resolved, That this Committee of the Department of Missions recommend to the Bishop of the Diocese that he consider the desirability of changing the Missionaries of the Diocese from Station to Station, or to such other work as may seem to him wise after five years of occupancy in any one Station.

Archdeacon Phillips continues to discharge faithfully his duties to our colored brethren. He does not see the need, at this time, of starting any new work. During the year, Holy Comforter, West Philadelphia, was purchased by the Diocese for S. Monica's Mission, where it is hoped a successful work will be carried on.

Our Italian work continues to be a perplexing problem. However, we feel that some progress has been made during the year. The Department recommended at its February meeting that the Church property of L'Emmanuello be sold. Since that time, S. Elizabeth's has been turned over to the Diocese and the work of L'Emmanuello will be transferred to Sixteenth and Mifflin Streets.

The Church work among the Poles is most encouraging. They have shown a real interest in the Church and have manifested it by trying to care for themselves. During the year, on their own initiative, they purchased a brewery in Conshohocken. This building has been remodelled and is now used as a Church and Parish House. The Diocese will contribute towards this new work next year $1,290.

There is one phase of our Diocesan work which is a considerable expense and is becoming more of a problem each year. The use of Diocesan automobiles, or rather misuse, is in some instances of such a nature that we feel an entirely different or new arrangement should be made. (Your Department will suggest a plan in the near future.) The Diocese holds title to thirteen machines, which are insured against theft, fire, damage to property and personal liability. An allowance of $200 per year for up-keep is made by the Diocese to those operating these machines.

An allowance of $300 per year for up-keep is allowed to four clergymen who own their own automobiles and use them in connection with their work and $600 more is appropriated to certain others for automobile service. Besides, there is an appropriation each year of $1,500 for replacement. This makes a total yearly outlay of $7,383.50 (including insurance premiums).

The Church Extension Fund (thanks to the work of Mr. Samuel H. Warnock, and the generous gifts of those interested) continues to be a source of valuable income to the Diocese.

During the year 1928, the total receipts amounted to $10,256.76. This total includes payments in 1928 of arrears for the years 1925–26–27, amounting to $154.26, and advance payments for coming 1929 calls amounting to $57.00.

Receipts from the three Calls in 1928 were as follows.

January—Resurrection Mission, Mayfair	$3,522.67
April—Redeemer Mission (Polish)	3,341.65
October—Holy Sacrament, Highland Park	3,181.18

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN E. HILL,
Secretary, Department of Missions

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The past year has been one of great activity and blessing in the Convocation of Chester.

All Saints', Darby, by a great and concerted effort, raised the $5,000 due on a mortgage since the beginning of the Mission. This valuable and beautiful property is now absolutely without debt and is doing a most efficient work in the Community.

Trinity Church, Collingdale, has realized its dream and is now possessed of one of the most attractive and thoroughly equipped Parish Buildings in the Diocese.

Last summer, in the absence of the Bishop, the Dean "broke ground" for a Parish Building at S. John's, Essington, and the work is now going forward to completion. This will make S. John's the most attractive and useful set of buildings in Essington. The work here has been very prosperous and is full of promise.

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, has secured plans for a new and enlarged Church to meet the demands of a congregation that has now outgrown its old building. A drive for funds was inaugurated by the Rector and gives promise of success. This ought to be one of the largest works outside Philadelphia.

S. James, Prospect Park, has adopted plans for the enlargement of its Church building and the erection of a Rectory. Quite a sum of money is now on hand for this work.

S. Giles, Stonehurst, has secured a new site for its Church and Parish Building and hopes to secure for its old site a sum sufficient for all its needs. The increase of the value of its lot in the less than ten years since its purchase has been phenomenal.

The building of the Church of the Redeemer, Springfield, is nearing completion. The bankruptcy of the contractors has delayed the work, but there has been no financial loss. We have here one of the most promising stations in the Convocation.

In the absence of the Bishop, the Dean "broke ground" and later laid the cornerstone of S. Mary's Colored Mission in Chester. On December 6th the Bishop held a dedicatory service in the completed Parish Building. We have here a splendidly equipped work in the heart of the colored population and directly opposite to the Booker Washington Junior High School for Colored Children. It is hoped that great things will be accomplished through this Mission.

The Church of the Holy Comforter has removed from Philadelphia and came into this Convocation. An ample and splendidly located lot has been secured at Aronimink; plans have been adopted; and services are being held in a private house. The outlook is very hopeful.

S. Martin's, Marcus Hook, an ancient parish, but inactive for a quarter of a century, has put itself under the direction of the Bishop. The Bishop has placed it under the Dean of the Convocation. There has been a great revival; and we hope the time is not distant when the work will be removed to a more advantageous location where it can more efficiently serve the hundreds of English Churchmen resident in the Community.

The other work of the Convocation has progressed.

Rev. Mr. Sanford still does his faithful work at Concord and Chadds Ford.

The Rev. Mr. McKinley has gone to Honeybrook and is also to take under his charge S. John's, Pequea, an ancient parish but without a Rector for many years.

Advent, Kennett, is advancing under the shepherding of its faithful pastor, Mr. Bellis, who also looks after the work at Kelton and Oxford.

Mr. Hornby is still serving faithfully at S. Mary's, Warwick, and looking after two other Missions in two other dioceses.

Mr. Powell is doing an effective community service at Gladwyn. This was at one time a Mission of the Church of the Redeemer, but that Parish fully equipped the work and gave it over to the Convocation.

The one note of sadness in the Convocation was what seemed almost the untimely removal of the Rev. Addison A. Lamb, Rector of Coatesville and in charge of the Mission at Parkesburg. He was a man greatly beloved by the whole community. Thoughtful, kindly, affectionate, always a gentleman, he greatly endeared himself both to clergy and people. We shall greatly miss him.

F. M. TAITT,
Dean

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Convocation of Germantown has a magnificent opportunity for serving the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The Bell Telephone Company states that it believes that forty per cent of the growth of Philadelphia within the next ten years will be in the northern and northeastern sections; and this prophecy is certainly in the process of being fulfilled. And as there are nearly fourteen thousand communicants of the Episcopal Church in this Convocation, we ought with the assistance of the Diocese to accomplish much for Christ and His Church.

The work of the Convocation naturally divided into four parts: 1. That carried on in our regular white English-speaking Missions in the County of Philadelphia; 2. That carried on in similar Missions in Bucks County; 3. That among the Colored Race; and 4. That among the Poles.

1. There are four regular Missions in the County of Philadelphia, the oldest being S. Gabriel's at Front Street and Roosevelt Boulevard, where the Rev. William T. Metz has been doing successful work for ten years. We congratulate him and his people on the completion of their handsome Parish House, which was dedicated last November, and their increased income. We believe that before long this will become a self-supporting parish.

The Mission of the Ascension at Rhawnhurst, so well started by the Rev. Paul Micou, now under the charge of the Rev. James McClintock, is growing very satisfactorily, its report showing an increase in every aspect of activity, and with the Minister in Charge and the people working hard and harmoniously there is a bright outlook for growth and increased prosperity.

The Mission of the Resurrection, Mayfair, under the wise guidance of the Rev. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, with the able assistance of Mr. Carl Mintzer, and other interested laymen, has had a remarkably successful career. They commenced holding Church Services and a Sunday School in a rented house in June, 1927, and so rapid has been the development that they hope to conduct these in their fine stone Parish House during the month of March, 1929, and are looking forward to shortly becoming a self-supporting parish. We congratulate and thank the members of this Mission on their noble achievement. We also thank Mrs. Mary M. Garrett most heartily for the generous help she has given to this very hopeful Mission. The phenomenal growth of the Resurrection, Mayfair, well illustrates the great advantage of being first on the ground in a growing community.

The Mission of S. Matthew, located at Oxford Circle on the Roosevelt Boulevard, our Baby Mission, has done splendidly under the energetic leadership of the Rev. William O. Roome with the valuable assistance of a fine band of laymen and laywomen. The accommodations of a rented store are now filled to overflowing every Sunday with the constantly increasing numbers who attend the Church Services and School. We ought very soon to be seriously contemplating the erection of a stone Parish House on the excellent site which the Diocese owns on the north side of the Boulevard. When that is erected we confidently predict an even more rapid development.

The Diocese has lately secured a large piece of ground well located close to Ogontz Avenue and City Line in the West Oak Lane district; but we have not yet been able to commence holding services in that vicinity, although we hope to be able to do so in the early summer months.

2. In Bucks County, under the able administration of Dr. Prevost, and with the assistance of a faithful band of clergy and laymen, eleven Missions are now being conducted; All Saints', Fallsington, having been added to the number during the past year. Most of these are located in rural districts; but some, such as The Incarnation, Morrisville, and S. James, Langhorne, are situated in growing urban communities. All of them seem to be doing good and useful work.

There are some good-sized towns in Bucks County, such as Perkasie and Sellersville, where as yet we have not started holding any Church services as they are largely inhabited by those connected with the German and Reformed Churches. We believe, however, that it would be wise to have a survey made of those places to see how many of our Church people reside there.

3. Our one Colored Mission, that of S. Barnabas, Germantown, under the enthusiastic direction of the Rev. E. S. Thomas, is carrying on a successful ministry among our colored brethren. The report manifests such healthy growth that we anticipate that before long this will become a self-supporting parish. We congratulate both pastor and people on what they have accomplished, and are very hopeful for the future.

4. The Convocation of Germantown has also one Mission among the Poles, that of S. Mary's at Manayunk, under the care of the Rev. E. M. Baczewski, which has had a good growth during the past year. We are very grateful to the authorities of S. Stephen's, Wissahickon, for graciously granting them the use of their building for Sunday and week-day Schools.

We extend our most heartfelt thanks to the officers and members of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation for the splendid help they have rendered during the past year. We appreciate very deeply the financial assistance they have given to some of our Missions, and the contribution of $2,000 they made towards the Diocesan Campaign. We gladly append their report, and ask that all the Parishes and Missions within our Convocation of Germantown will do their best to make the Garden Party to be held next June a thorough success.

L. N. CALEY, Dean

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Woman's Aid has had an encouraging and interesting year of work for the missions of the Convocation. $4,000 has been paid toward the Pledge of $10,000 to the Diocesan Campaign which this year went toward the completion of the Parish House of S. Gabriel's on the Boulevard. S. Bartholomew's received $422 for the Building Fund; Holy Innocents, Tacony, $50 towards chairs (for the Parish House) and the annual pledges to Convocation of $200 to S. Gabriel's and $200 to the Bucks County Mission.

The annual Garden Party was held at Wyck through the kindness of Mr. Caspar Haines and brought together over 700 people representing the various parishes and missions.

The meetings have been well attended and enthusiastic, those at the stated times of Convocation as well as at the Spring and Autumn Devotional Day.

The Spring service and meeting was at S. Luke's, Germantown; the Rev. Edward Schleuter made the address at the service and the Rev. William Metz and Mrs. Thomas Reath for the Altar Guild addressed the afternoon meeting. The Autumn Devotional Day was held at S. Martin's, Chestnut Hill; Bishop Booth addressed the women in the morning and at the afternoon conference told of mission work in Vermont.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Convocation has the pleasure of reporting encouraging progress at several points during the past year.

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, under the leadership of the Rev. William Powell, has had a very good year. There was a good Confirmation class and the attendance at the Church Services and at Sunday School showed a decided improvement. The Mission has also completed improvements to the grounds and made some much needed repairs to the building, raising the funds largely from their own people. The plan of combining this work with that of S. Joseph's Mission, Gladwyne, in the Convocation of Chester, in charge of a clergyman, has proven very beneficial.

Advent Mission, Hatboro, has been greatly encouraged by the beginning of work on their new Parish House and the Mission has undertaken the financing of this project until the Diocese is able to do its part from Campaign Funds. There were good confirmation classes at both Hatboro and Willow Grove and Dr. Lamb reports that the future for the work in both places is very promising.

Holy Trinity, Lansdale, is also deeply interested in plans for their new Parish House and the architect has been chosen and is now working on the plans. It is hoped that work will be started upon the building this year, thus providing for this Mission a long felt and great need. The Mission had an unusually large number of Baptisms and Confirmations the past year.

The Convocation has continued to assist the work at S. Peter's Chapel, Glenside, by providing automobile and lay reader for Mr. Copeland. The work there is in very flourishing condition.

An important new work was started during the year, namely, a Mission for Polish people at Conshohocken. The Polish people there have bought a large building, formerly used as a brewery, and have remodeled it, providing a Chapel, a Parish Hall and a club room. The building was dedicated by Bishop Garland on November 25th and the Mission has been placed in charge of the Rev. Ambrose Baczewski, brother of Rev. Edward Baczewski, in charge of the Polish work at Port Richmond and Manayunk, to whose zeal and enthusiasm the starting and developing of this work is largely due.

WOMEN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION

During the year three meetings of the Women's Aid to the Convocation of Norristown have been held.

Early in May, at the Rectory in Lansdale, Annual Reports were presented and officers were elected. This was preceded by a brief service in the Church, and followed by an interesting account of the Diocesan Convention by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne of Bala. The dean also spoke on the work for the year. The Rev. W. J. Wilkie and Mrs. Wilkie, with members of Holy Trinity, Lansdale, had provided refreshments, which afforded a pleasant opportunity for social intercourse after adjournment.

On the last Thursday in May, at Valley Forge, at the regular meeting of the Convocation, the Women's Aid again met. The reports, the payment of contributions towards the annual pledge for the Bishop's Campaign, and two addresses from Mrs.

Williamson and Miss Brown, presidents of the Women's Aid to the Convocations of Chester and Germantown, filled the hour which had been set apart before the joint session in the Memorial Chapel.

In October, at Christ Church, Pottstown, after hearing from the Treasurer that the pledge of $500 had been paid, that $100 had been given toward the purchase of a lot at Glenside and that there was a balance of $101.91 it was voted that $100 more be sent for the work of the Bishop's Campaign. At this meeting five of the delegates gave in a most interesting way, their impressions of the General Convention in Washington, which they had recently been attending.

There are twenty-four Churches and Missions represented in the Women's Aid to the Convocation of Norristown.

Respectfully submitted,

LYDIA WEST,
President

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Missions of this Convocation present a most interesting and steady development during the past year. The budget is a large one because of the extent and variety of the work, and because here we are witnesses for the Church in one of the most densely populated communities in the world. Necessarily, new missions are not contemplated, because growing centers of population are in the more outlying districts. Our effort is to enlarge and strengthen the work as it is, and our clergy and lay helpers, both men and women, are rendering a consecrated service of the greatest value.

Everyone knows what the Rev. A. J. Arkin has done at S. George's, Richmond, for over twenty-five years; how the mission has been enlarged and the whole community improved, and how he founded and encouraged S. George's, Venango. Under the Rev. A. H. Hord, this mission has had a remarkable growth, and the completion of the first section of the new parish house has been made possible by the Diocesan Campaign. The property is in fine condition, and a very large body of active members—particularly the men—are pushing forward to do greater things. How could it be otherwise under the devotion and consecration of Mr. Hord?

The Rev. Frederick B. Halsey's ten years at S. Ambrose's Mission have given splendid results and promise greater development in the future. The next building project in this Convocation from the Diocesan Campaign will be the much needed parish house for this mission. The special building committee has been appointed and is composed of the Rev. Dr. McIlhenny, Mr. Howard R. Sheppard, and Mr. William White.

There is a fine spirit at S. Ambrose and the people of the mission are cooperating to make the coming year one of fruitful endeavor.

All who are familiar with the work the Rev. H. S. McDuffy has done at S. Augustine's Mission for colored people feel a deep regret that he has been compelled to resign on account of a physical breakdown due to long, hard service and advancing years. He was one of the most faithful and efficient missionaries we have ever known, and we sympathize deeply with him in his forced retirement. The Bishop has appointed the Rev. J. H. Hudson in charge of the mission. Mr. Hudson was Mr. McDuffy's assistant for three years, and knows the situation. Out of the foundations already laid will come a strong independent parish, and we hope that better accommodations may be given for this work, as they are now most inadequate.

Under the foreign-born group we have in the Convocation two Polish missions and one Italian mission. Holy Redeemer (Polish) is now using the church which was purchased last year. This will soon be an independent parish, as it ministers to an increasing Polish population. The Priest-in-charge, Rev. E. M. Baczewski, has real missionary vision, and has not only carried on additional work in Manayunk, but is developing a large mission for the Polish people in Conshohocken.

The Church of the Advent (Polish), under the Rev. J. O. Pienionzek, continues to do a good but very difficult work. The population is shifting. Years ago this was one of the best residential sections in the city, and the Church of the Advent was the flourishing parish where Phillips Brooks began his great ministry. But the church goes on, ministering to the foreign population that has moved in.

The Mission of S. Mary of the Annunciation (Italian) is under the Rev. S. G. Biagini. The Services are held in a small room which is overcrowded, and there is great need for larger accommodations. These churches for the foreign-born, while reporting to the Convocation, are under the direction of Archdeacon Bullitt, while the Hebrew Christian Synagogue, All Souls' Church for the Deaf, and S. John's Settlement House are under special commissions.

The Hebrew Christian Synagogue is under the direction of Miss Ormsby, and is situated at 517 York Avenue (near the Church of the Advent). As we have before pointed out, the growth of such missions must be slow, but strong foundations are being laid. The Settlement House at Third and Brown Streets is using the old S. John's Church property, and is under the direction of Deaconess Young. This is becoming to the North Convocation what S. Martha's House is to the South Convocation, and is an important growing institution.

All Souls' Church for the Deaf presents a very interesting and unique development through many years of devoted leadership under the late Rev. Mr. Syle, the Rev. Mr. Koehler, the Rev. Mr. Dantzer, and now under the Rev. Warren M. Smaltz. The fine church and parish house were made possible by the generous gifts of Mr. T. Broom Belfield, and the Church ministers to people far and wide. It would be a delightful and interesting experience if more of our Church members would visit this church and see (not listen to) the Service rendered entirely in the sign language by the minister and the vested choir.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the Woman's Aid under the leadership of Miss Laura Bell. The past year has been the best in sustained interest, constant enthusiasm, and loyal service. Not only have the pledges to date for the Diocesan Campaign been redeemed, but generous contributions have also been made for the missions. As an example, over $500 was appropriated for special objects at the last meeting in October to meet pressing needs.

The Convocation is under a great debt to Mr. Casper Wister Haines and Miss Haines for the use of their beautiful and historical home where our annual lawn fete has been given each year for a number of years. We are very grateful for this help. Through these fetes many of our people are brought together for united effort, and large sums added to the treasury.

It is interesting to note also that in the Convocation of North Philadelphia some of our largest and most important institutions are situated, including the Galilee Mission, and the Episcopal Hospital. It is, of course, most important to start and develop new missions in the growing suburbs, but it is no less necessary to strengthen the churches and missions in the midst of the great city population, where there are so many increasing problems to be solved, which are a constant challenge to our faith and sacrifice.

N. V. P. LEVIS, Dean

THE WOMAN'S AID OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

Some ten years ago the Woman's Aid of the Convocation of North Philadelphia was organized when the Rev. Dr. Caley was Dean of that Convocation, and has been actively engaged ever since in furthering the interests and welfare of the missions in that quarter of the city, not only with material substantial assistance, but with friendly intercourse. There is a wholesome sense of co-operation among the delegates, who meet at stated periods to arrange for ways and means to raise money to help pay off a mortgage, to contribute to an organ fund, to plant shrubs and flowers, to lay a pavement or mend a roof, or do any other necessary housekeeping repairs above or below ground. They also, now and again, add to Communion Alms.

Of late years a thousand dollars annually for five years has been pledged to the Diocesan Campaign Fund, and during the past decade S. Nathanael's, S. Augustine's, S. Ambrose, All Souls' for the Deaf, S. George's, Richmond; S. George's, Venango, and S. John's House have been among the beneficiaries of the entertainments and garden parties given under the auspices of this Woman's Aid.

Social service has also been a feature of the work of the Aid in an effort to lighten the burdens of others by hospital visits, or supplying a wheeled chair or clothing, as well as more personal gifts to individuals. There has always been a need for something, somewhere, and the Woman's Aid has cheerfully extended a helping hand.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The item of great missionary significance in this Convocation during the year is the closing of the Church of L'Emmanuello, the Italian Mission, Eleventh and Christian Streets, and the transfer of its minister-in-charge and congregation to S. Elisabeth's Church, Sixteenth and Mifflin Streets.

This was done because the center of Italian population in South Philadelphia has shifted westward, surrounding S. Elisabeth's, thus making it the logical place for Italian work. L'Emmanuello will eventually be sold and the proceeds of the sale kept for the Italian work. S. Elisabeth's, under the supervision of the Rev. John R. Crosby; D.D., is doing work among several other racial groups besides the Italians.

Groups of Italians have been gathered at the Chapel of the Prince of Peace and at the Chapel of the Holy Comforter.

The Chapel of the Transfiguration is adapting itself to its new site at Seventh and Bigler Streets, and gathering new members into the Church and new scholars into the Sunday-school. The Rev. H. Cresson McHenry continues his energetic oversight of this work. The Chapel sadly needs new buildings.

The new Mission for colored people, Holy Spirit, meeting in the Chapel of All Saints' continues to grow under the fostering care of the Rector of All Saints', the Archdeacon for colored work, and the Rectors of S. Thomas's and the Crucifixion.

As a whole the missionary work of the Convocation is offering more of promise just now than for several years past.

We still await the magic wand of interest and knowledge to awaken us to the opportunity for a very great social-service work lying all about us.

Perhaps it is too great a task for any one Church. Its effective doing mayhap must abide the united action of all the Churches.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The situation in West Philadelphia remains substantially the same as last year, in respect to the chaotic condition of the moving population and real estate. There is some very considerable building going on in the region between the Church of the Mediator and the Epiphany, apartments of pretention are being erected by scores. In other sections the people are moving away, and their place is being taken by colored people. It is this movement of colored people that constitutes the principal problem of this Convocation. A Committee of Convocation has been studying this matter and at the January meeting presented some very startling figures. From the most reliable sources it is believed that the total colored population of the city is now (1928) 178,000. Of this number 35,000 are resident in West Philadelphia.

Another important discovery is that, whereas the growth of the colored population of the city from 1910 to 1928 had been at the rate of 110 per cent, the increase in West Philadelphia had been at the rate of 220 per cent. This increase has been most evident in the wards north of Market Street, viz.: 24th, 34th, 44th wards. The white population has deserted whole sections, and the encroachments on white churches of all religious bodies is a very serious problem.

We have endeavored to face this change in the region about the Mission of the Holy Comforter, which is one of the most thickly settled colored sections, by the removal of that Mission, or aided parish to Aronimink in the Chester Convocation, where vast building projects are being put through, and S. Monica's Mission has been transferred from 42nd and Woodland Avenue to the site of the Holy Comforter, 48th and Haverford Avenue. The Reverend Richard Bright began work on the new site on the first Sunday in November and reports encouraging progress.

Week-day services and a Sunday School are still being maintained at the old site of S. Monica's, 42nd and Woodland Avenue. At the opportune time this site will be sold and the diocese repaid the $45,000 advance for the purchase of the Holy Comforter, from its corporation, to put them in funds for the opening of the new work at Aronimink.

S. Cyprian's Mission carries on well, considering the severe handicap under which it labors in respect to its building. The addition of the upper story of the Parish House, of which only the basement is at present completed, will offer the opportunity to enlarge and extend this work. We look forward to some help from the Campaign Fund which will complete this building.

The Rev. E. Hopkin labors faithfully at S. Titus' Mission and is much appreciated by the people there. Improvements have been effected in the building which have added much to its comfort and usefulness.

Speculation is still rife among people everywhere in this section of the city as to the changes that will made by the erection of the new station at 32nd and Market Streets and the erection of the new bridge from Powelton Avenue to Winter Street. The electrification of the railroads would also make a marvelous comeback throughout West Philadelphia. Everyone hopes for a revival that will affect the community in every way.

APPENDIX J

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

A large part of the work of the registrar is the performance of those routine duties which are required of all keepers of historical records. Allusion has been made in former reports to such details as answering innumerable letters, searching records and giving out information, biographical and historical, to many persons. However little these details may interest the public, attention to them entails no small amount of labor on the part of the registrar and they are, therefore, entitled to mention in a report of his activities.

A number of old records relating to St. Paul's Church, Third below Walnut Street, Philadelphia, have been received from the City Mission, and, like most papers that cannot be replaced, if destroyed, they have been deposited in the fire-proof vault of the Church House.

In this connection, it might be well to mention the fact that the fire-proof vault, which was quite adequate for the accommodation of all valuable papers when the present Church House was first occupied, has lately become overcrowded with the material therein deposited. This is due to the fact that it is no longer the store-room used exclusively by the Standing Committee and the registrar, but has become the receptacle for the papers of other departments of Diocesan work which have their headquarters in the Church House.

It may be of interest to persons seeking information in the records of old St. Paul's Church to know that complete copies of these records may be found among the collections of the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania in the building of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, and that these records, moreover, are accurately indexed, thus facilitating the work of the searcher.

Many interesting and valuable newspaper clippings relating to the Church, the clergy and the prominent laity of this Diocese were contributed during the past year by the Reverend George Woolsey Hodge, D.D.

In the death of Dr. Hodge, those organizations which are engaged in historical work have lost a supporter who can scarcely be replaced. Dr. Hodge was indefatigable in collecting and preserving data relating to parochial and general church history. As Chairman of the Committee on Parochial History he gathered material industriously and this material always found its destination in the library of the registrar. The registrar is glad to have this opportunity of testifying to these valuable services, over a period of many years, rendered by Dr. Hodge to the Church of which he was a distinguished clergyman.

ARNOLD HARRIS HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Diocesan Campaign Fund

THE RECORD OF TWO YEARS' PROGRESS

In the outstanding missionary movement inaugurated two years ago by the Bishop to provide through a Five-Year Program for the material equipment of our Missions and Institutions in the Diocese and for the further extension of our missionary work in new and rapidly developing communities, the accomplishments of the two years, ending December 31, 1928, disclose a splendid record of achievement.

Your Committee therefore deems it a very real privilege to submit in this Epiphany season of 1929 a report of what has been accomplished in the two-year period for the information of each of the more than 20,000 parishioners, who, under the leadership of their rectors, missionary priests and laity in the parishes and mission stations, responded so loyally and generously to the Bishop's call for a united co-operative Diocesan effort in the carrying out of the plans for the Five-Year Program. This information is given in obedience to the Bishop's announced purpose at the beginning of the movement in December, 1926, to send yearly to each of those participating in the campaign a report of the progress being made.

We are convinced that the hearts of all our people must be filled with thanksgiving to God for the advance which the Diocese has been able to make in this two-year period. It is a record of which everyone who, by prayer, consecrated service and financial aid, helped to make possible, may be justly proud.

As each of you review the accomplishments, surely they will serve as an inspiration for continued loyalty and service and, also, as a challenge to go forward to still larger accomplishment in the work yet to be done in the remaining three years, so that those of our Missions and Institutions yet to be equipped, like those we have now equipped, may be able to do the greater work which lies at their doors in upbuilding the Kingdom of God in our Diocese.

By December 31, 1928, there was paid in cash for Missions and Institutions, more than $900,000. This total represents expenditures covering the entire two-year period. Receipts from payments on pledges up to December 31 aggregated $950,000.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE FOR MISSIONS

Acquirement of New Sites:

For the new Mission of the Resurrection, Rowland and Englewood Avenues, in the Mayfair district of Northeast Philadelphia.

For the new Mission of St. Matthew, Comly and Large Streets, one square from Oxford Circle, fronting on the Roosevelt Boulevard.

For the new Mission of the Ascension, Ripley and Frontenac Streets, in the Rhawnhurst district of Northeast Philadelphia.

For the Mission of the Transfiguration, South Philadelphia, Seventh and Bigler Streets.

An additional lot for St. John's, Essington, to provide more room for its development.

Parish Buildings:

Completion of the parish building of St. Barnabas, Rittenhouse Street, Germantown, by addition of the second floor.

Completion of the parish building of St. Gabriel's, Front Street and the Roosevelt Boulevard, by addition of the second floor.

Erection of the new parish building of Trinity, Collingdale, supplying this work with an equipment it has hithero lacked.

Erection of the new parish building for St. Mary's, Chester, at Seventh and Edwards Streets, on ground which this colored mission congregation bought, and which gives the Mission a home of its own in which to worship and develop its many opportunities for missionary work among a considerable colored population in Chester.

Completion of the first unit of the parish building for our new Mission of the Ascension in Rhawnhurst, which equips this work with a place in which already it is taking on a rapid development.

Completion of the first unit of a parish building for the Mission of St. George, East Venango and Edgemont Streets, in the northeast section of Philadelphia, a result of which is shown already in the increasing service which this Mission is able to render in the community.

Other Improvements:

Removal of the temporary frame building of the Mission of the Transfiguration, South Philadelphia, from the old site in Stone House Lane to the new and more strategic site at Seventh and Bigler Streets.

Purchase of the Church and Rectory of the Church of the Holy Comforter, 48th Street and Haverford Avenue, for St. Monica's Colored Mission. This relocation of St. Monica's in a field where there are thousands of colored families was made possible at this time by the removal of Holy Comforter to its new site in Delaware County.

Purchase of a Church and Rectory at 2961 Richmond Street for our Polish Mission of the Redeemer, which for many years, through the kindness of St. George's, Richmond, used its parish house. In its own home, the Polish Mission is presenting many evidences of steady growth.

Parish House for Holy Innocents, Tyson and Vandyke Streets, Tacony, rebuilt and made as good as new. In its former condition this building was rapidly becoming unfit for use and in danger of being condemned.

Parish House of St. Elisabeth's, 16th and Mifflin Streets, thoroughly repaired and renovated.

Buildings Under Way:

Parish House for St. John's, Essington, to occupy the additional lot acquired for this Mission. This building will relieve the overcrowding of the Sunday School in the small antiquated frame structure which has been the home of the Mission since its beginning and give the Mission very much needed additional equipment.

Parish House for the Redeemer Mission, Springfield, Delaware County. This building is rapidly nearing completion and will enable the congregation to leave its present location in the Woman's Club of Springfield.

Parish House for our new Mission of the Resurrection, in the Mayfair district of Northeast Philadelphia. This building is rapidly nearing completion. This Mission congregation is developing unusual growth in the neighborhood to which the Mission is ministering and gives evidence of becoming a self-supporting work in a reasonably short time.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE FOR INSTITUTIONS

In addition to what we have spent for our Missions during the two-year period, a total of $557,995 has been paid over to the Institutions of the Diocese. Included in this total is the $74,405.51 paid to the National Council to meet the Diocesan pledge of 1926 and also to pay the Diocesan share in the accumulated deficit of the National Council.

The amounts paid to our Institutions represent in some instances the total allocations some of the Institutions were to receive during the operation of the Five-Year Program.

Total Allocations were paid as follows:

The Church Farm School	$50,000
The Galilee Mission	40,000
House of the Holy Child	37,700
St. Andrew's, State College	40,000
Sheltering Arms	8,000
Christ Church Hospital	2,500

Part of Allocations have been paid as follows:

The Episcopal Hospital	$150,000
Cathedral Enterprises	77,390
City Mission for Home for Consumptives	30,000
To the Episcopal Academy	50,000

WHAT REMAINS TO BE DONE

The entire Five-Year Program calls for a very considerable amount of constructive work to be done in the three years which lie ahead.

Additional allocations amounting to more than $650,000 have to be paid for Institutions.

Also some special pledges for purposes indicated by the donors:

In addition, balances due on properties already purchased must be paid.

The balance of the Program as adopted, and to be completed during the next three years, includes:

Purchase of a lot in Yeadon, Delaware County, where a new Mission is to be started.

Allotments towards building of Parish Houses for the following:

Church of the Advent, Hatboro, Montgomery County.

St. Ambrose Mission, Howard and Ontario Streets, Philadelphia.

St. John the Evangelist, South Philadelphia.

Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale, Montgomery County.

St. Anne's Mission, Willow Grove, Montgomery County.

An addition to St. Cyprian's Colored Mission, Elmwood, Philadelphia.

Towards the new church building for Holy Sacrament Mission, Highland Park, Delaware County.

Towards the rectory for St. James, Prospect Park, Delaware County.

Additional payments due on property of the Polish Missions.

Sale of St. Giles property at Stonehurst will more than provide for a group of buildings on the new site secured for this Mission near its present location.

In considering that portion of the Five-Year Program yet to be completed, it must be remembered that $3,500,000 was an estimate of the amount necessary to carry out the entire program.

During the Campaign in December, 1926, the total of all pledges amounted to $2,011,000. Since there have been additional pledges and contributions which increased the total to $2,022,000.

Obviously, in order to carry out the entire Five-Year Program so that all the needs of our Missions and Institutions as provided for in the completed Program, the Diocese must receive additional subscriptions.

It will be impossible to carry out the pledge made by the Bishop on behalf of the Diocese to our Missions and Institutions in meeting all the urgent necessities unless a considerable sum over and above what was pledged during the Campaign is supplied.

The Bishop has decided and made announcement there will be no solicitation of funds for the additional money that will be needed towards meeting the full requirements planned for the five-year period.

It is the Bishop's hope, in which your Committee shares, that many who already have pledged for five years will voluntarily increase their pledges, and that many others who pledged for but one year will make generous additional subscriptions.

The Bishop will be glad to make appointments with any who desire to confer with him about their gifts or who may wish to give a Memorial to one of our Missions and Institutions.

Report of the Commission for Work Among the Deaf

The Work among the Deaf continues under the direction of the Rev. Warren M. Smaltz at All Souls' Church for the Deaf, the oldest church for deaf people in the world, and the largest and best equipped for the purpose.

The past year saw an almost unprecedented amount of unemployment among deaf people. A considerable number had no work of any kind for extended periods, and a still greater number were employed for only a few days a week. There was some hardship in individual cases, and the slender resources of All Souls' Mission were severely drawn upon to afford temporary relief. The City Mission lent its aid in a number of instances. This unusual condition is now rapidly disappearing, and most of our deaf people are once more employed to a sufficient extent to make the support of themselves and their families possible. But it was inevitable under the circumstances that a considerable falling off in the financial support of the Mission should have been evident for a time.

The Mission secured the installation of an excellent and complete motion picture projection equipment through the generosity of a number of interested hearing friends, who contributed over one thousand dollars, so that the Mission enjoys a weekly program of motion pictures. It may be difficult for the average individual to realize the peculiar pleasure derived by the deaf from pictures. It is almost the only modern invention they can enjoy, and now, through the generous courtesy of the various film companies we receive, through the Philadelphia Film Board of Trade, a splendid program of motion pictures entirely without charge.

It has long been a difficult problem for the Missionary to make an adequate number of pastoral calls, inasmuch as the work among the deaf is not merely local but diocesan in its extent. The Commission obtained a Ford touring car for the missionary, and within the twelve-month it has been driven 12,000 miles. Mr. T. Broom Belfield also provided a substantial steel garage at the rear of All Souls' Rectory, which has improved the appearance of the property.

For the past three years our Mission has been contributing to the support of a young deaf man at the Philadelphia Divinity School, Mr. Robert C. Fletcher, from the Diocese of Alabama. He will complete his course in June, and hopes to be ordered Deacon early in the summer, probably laboring among the deaf of the South, in a large territory which hitherto has been without the active ministrations of our Church, although there are thousands of deaf mutes in this field. All Souls' Mission, and our Diocese, have probably done more to find and support promising deaf candidates for the Ministry than any other Diocese in America.

It is with deep sorrow that we report the death on April 2nd of Mrs. Margaret J. Syle, at the age of seventy-five, the widow of the late Rev. Henry Winter Syle, the first deaf mute ever ordained to the Ministry, and the first pastor of All Souls' Church. She was second only to her distinguished husband in the extent and success of her religious labors among the deaf. For half a century she gave to our Mission her whole time and energy, with a singleness of purpose and devotion that accomplished wonders. Her death was mourned by hundreds of the deaf people she had so long served and loved. May light perpetual shine upon her among the saints who rest from their labors.

The missionary desires to convey to the Convention his sense of appreciation for the interest, co-operation, and very practical help extended by the Commission on Church Work among the Deaf. In 1880 the Convention first authorized such a Commission, and the real growth and progress of the work can be dated from that time. The Commission was likewise responsible for the introduction of this truly missionary work into all of the neighboring Dioceses. Without its help, this special work of our Church would hardly have attained its present effectiveness.

APPENDIX O

Report of the Cathedral Church of Christ

The Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ, having established its formal connection with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania by the adoption on March 28, 1928, of a resolution of conformity and a declaration of its acceptance of Canon XVI, of the Cathedral Foundation, it submits to the Convention, as required by said Canon, its first annual report.

The most important event of the years 1927 and 1928 was the purchase by the corporation of a tract of a little over a hundred acres of land in upper Roxborough, Philadelphia, as a site for the erection of a Cathedral Church and other associated buildings.

The property consists of a plateau at about the highest level of land anywhere within the city limits, which commands a view of Chestnut in one direction and of Bryn Mawr in the other. It lies at the junction of Ridge Avenue, Henry Avenue and the proposed Cathedral Road, a highway one hundred feet in width, which is planned to form a direct connection between Chestnut Hill and Bryn Mawr and upon which the Cathedral property will have a frontage of over 1600 feet. The property was acquired at a cost of a little over half a million dollars, and since its acquisition its value for Cathedral purposes has been materially enhanced by the action of the municipal authorities in placing upon the City plan a number of streets, which will entirely surround the tract and upon which it will abut, and in striking from the plan the only street which formerly intersected it. This will render it possible to make the fullest use of the property and afford the greatest freedom in the selection of sites for the many buildings that will ultimately be erected upon it, without the restrictions usually imposed in the case of such a large area within the City limits by plotted streets intersecting it in every direction.

With a view to taking advantage of this fortunate state of affairs, the Chapter is having a careful study made of the site, so as to secure a comprehensive plan for the general location of all the most important buildings likely to be required within the next fifty years. With this plan in hand, the Chapter will be in a position to proceed without hesitation or confusion in erecting from time to time in an orderly fashion such buildings as may be required, whenever the necessary funds become available for the purpose.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chapter,

JOHN J. COLLIER, Acting Registrar.

Repeated requests have been sent to the Rectors of Churches of which we have no history, asking them to write, or procure some one to write, an account at least of their Churches, to which no replies have been received.

For the Committee,

G. WOOLSEY HODGE, Chairman.

APPENDIX R

Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions 1928

The exact financial statements of the Commission are included in the general Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

During the year 1928 we assisted seventeen parishes to meet the minimum salary standard, in amounts varying from one to nine hundred dollars, at a total cost of almost exactly eleven thousand dollars.

In the year 1929 we are helping fourteen parishes at an estimated cost of nine thousand dollars. Two of the parishes we formerly helped have taken the status of missions, and one has become self supporting. The fact that our expenses this year will run below our budget will mean that the assessment for 1930 will be considerably less than for this year.

The Pension Assessments of the clergy of the Diocese have been paid in full to December 31, 1928. In order to do this the Sustentation Fund had to advance eight hundred dollars at the first of the year, but since then delinquent parishes have paid up their arrearages to the extent of five hundred dollars.

There are in this Diocese now eighty-seven beneficiaries of the Pension Fund, in all its departments, receiving a total of thirty-six thousand dollars. Of the seventeen clergy retired by reason of age, not one is receiving less than $750.00 and three are receiving as much as a thousand dollars. The terror of the six-hundred-dollar minimum has already disappeared, so far as our Diocese is concerned.

The Commission presents the customary resolution, and moves its adoption.

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the parishes and Missions of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding $1500.00 for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for 1930.

GILBERT PEMBER, Chairman.

APPENDIX S

Report of the Commission on Church Building

The Commission on Church Building of the Diocese, since the last Report made to the Convention, has met, at the call of the Bishop, but seldom, yet the service of the various committees has been carried on in the intervals with definite reportings at the full meetings held at the Church House.

A number of propositions for building operations long under consideration have been consummated, and in most instances the new structures are now in active use. The following Mission buildings have been subjected to the careful study of the various committees with final approval by the Bishop and the assembled members.

Holy Trinity, Collingdale.

At last the unsightly frame shack which had been used at Collingdale for so long a time has given way to a commodious and dignified stone structure from plans prepared several years ago by Mr. Watson. It is hoped that the quiet of the worshippers may not be interfered with by the greatly increased traffic on the avenue and boulevard nearby.

S. John the Evangelist's, Essington.

The antiquated frame building in use here for a long time, in the cellar of which the Sunday School has been carried on, is to give way to a handsome stone structure to be erected on land adjoining, the design having been prepared by Mr. Watson.

S. Mary's Church, Chester.

A parish house has been erected on the lot purchased by the colored congregation, at 7th and Edwards Streets. Messrs. Eyre and McIlvain have prepared a comprehensive plan in the colonial style, for the group of buildings contemplated.

Holy Trinity, Lansdale.

Plans prepared by Messrs. Watson & Co. for a Parish House for Lansdale have been approved.

St. George's, Venango.

For many years this growing Mission used the cellar of the frame Chapel building for parish purposes, but now a stone parish house has been erected, and is nearly completed.

Mission of the Redeemer, Springfield.

After some delay, the building plans for this Mission were put into operation and a structure is now practically ready for both religious and secular purposes.

S. Giles', Stonehurst.

This youthful and vigorous mission, located at 69th and Chestnut Streets, has been forced to seek a new site because of the almost magical transformation of the neighborhood into noisy commercial activities. The lot was sold at a great advantage and a new one purchased on Locust Street, a quiet residential section. The congregation greatly desired that the motive of the new buildings might be that of the "Colonial." Acceptable designs by Mr. Gilbert McIlvaine have been prepared for Church, Parish House and Rectory.

Holy Innocents, Tacony.

This Parish struggled along for many years with a badly built Parish House, the interior of which was greatly damaged by a recent fire. The repairs were most urgent. While the Commission was made aware of the conditions obtaining there, the operation was forwarded without definite appeal for advice.

Church of the Holy Comforter, Aronimink.

The Church of the Holy Comforter, for a number of years established on Haverford Avenue, on the north side of Kirkbride's, has been abandoned because of structural insecurity and the great changes in the neighborhood which have taken place in recent years. A new site has been selected at Aronimink and building plans have been drawn by Mr. Lewis Wood Easby.

These have been reviewed by the Commission, but none have been adopted owing to the undeveloped state of the land in the situation selected.

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park.

Plans prepared by Messrs. Furness, Evans & Co. for this Mission have been subjected to frequent revision, and all operation has been greatly delayed owing to the revision of the township building lines occasioned by the realignment of West Chester Pike.

The Mission of the Transfiguration,

In South Philadelphia, which had been established on the old Stone House Lane, in Martin's Village, has had purchased for it a new site at 7th and Bigler Streets, to which the old frame building has been moved.

S. Barnabas'.

The Parish House for the Mission of S. Barnabas for the use of the Colored people has been completed.

The Mission of the Ascension, in Rhawnhurst,

Near Bustleton, in the midst of a rapidly growing section, has acquired a site upon which a Church and the necessary buildings shall be built. For the present, to supply the immediate needs of the Community, only the parish house has been erected. The designs for the general plan have been prepared by Messrs. Watson & Company.

S. Paul's, Glenloch.

The Vestry of S. Paul's Church appealed for counsel in the preparation of comprehensive plans for the extension of the buildings for that parish. While the projects are in abeyance, the Committee of this Commission stands ready to lend active aid.

The House of Prayer, at Branchtown,

Has asked advice concerning improvements and alterations devised for that Parish.

State College.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has a joint interest in affairs at State College, as has already been communicated to the Convention, and pays a proportional amount for the maintenance of religious services, yet, it has no individual authority over subjects arising there. Rather pretentious building projects have been advanced from time to time, the plans for which were reviewed by this Commission and suggestions offered for the accomplishment of the most necessary operations. It was a source of gratification to learn that the criticisms made by us were quite in line with those made by other parties, and the plans for the Chapel were modified so as to cost less than those examined by the Commission in 1926.

Christ Church.

The Rector of Christ Church has appealed for advice concerning the preservation of the precious stone slabs covering and marking the graves of distinguished ones buried beneath the floor of the Church. All of these have been greatly worn by the feet of the hosts of visitors to that historic religious and national shrine. The Commission is seeking to solve the serious problem of how best to provide for their protection in the narrow aisles between the pews. Another item of no little importance is that in connection with the mural tablets in the interior of the Church. The Commission felt that a great effort should be made to arrange the tablets already there in an order somewhat in keeping with the architectural details of the sanctuary end of the Nave; and, that all new tablets to be erected hereafter shall be made to conform to the Wren-Georgian architectural motive in order that all such might harmonize with the classic details of that beautiful and precious building.

S. Thomas', Whitemarsh.

Advice was sought concerning the design for a tablet to be placed on the interior wall of the Church, in memory of him who, sometime between 1690 and 1700, gave the ground on which the S. Thomas' Church is erected. It had been suggested to the Vestry that the design of the tablet should be a duplicate of one already in place. The Commission, however, recommended that, while the size of the proposed tablet might be the same as that of the other, in their judgment, it would be desirable not to duplicate that but rather to make an effort to improve the lines, while at the same time maintaining the balance of treatment, and thereby individualizing the memorial and eliminating a mere stereotyping of the production.

S. Thomas' also desired counsel as to the appropriateness of the design proffered for a memorial window. The Commission advanced the opinion that the submitted design was not in keeping with the designs of the windows already in the Church, and it was recommended that the design should be recast to harmonize with their type and to conform to the scale of those in place.

In this connection the Commission again urges that Vestry Committees in every parish ought to adopt a comprehensive scheme of subjects and designs for the stained glass windows for their churches and to maintain the rule thus adopted for all future installations. By such provisions the pictorial aspect of Church interiors can be harmonious and appropriate, and, at at the same time, future would-be-donors could not therefore be grieved by the rejection of their proffered designs when such are not in harmony with the windows already in place.

The reverend clergy and lay committees are reminded that the Commission operates under Canonical authority, and approval of projects is imposed upon the Commission.

The Commission desires and still seeks to be of increased service to the Diocese and to individual parishes. This service can be of greatest value when the consultations are instituted at the inception of plans for the selection of sites as well as for outlining of the building operations and in the sketching of furnishing and decoration of the churches.

It is an onerous burden sometimes placed upon the Commission to be asked to criticise and approve of architects' plans and drawings when these have been ordered and have been entirely and expensively prepared and have been made ready to be distributed to the building contractors. The Commission has been in existence a number of years so that the experience gained by the serious consideration and study of many projects ought to be at the command of all in the Diocese interested in the building of Churches.

Obediently submitted for the Commission.

Secretary

Journal of Proceedings

Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia,
Tuesday, October 2, 1928.

The Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled as above at 9.30 A. M., pursuant to the call of the Bishop of the Diocese.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Thomas James Garland, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., assisted by the Rev. Edward M. Jefferys, S.T.D., the Rev. Frank L. Vernon, D.D., Litt.D., and the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D.

The Offering was for the Hospital at Ponce, Porto Rico, amounting to $211.69.

The Special Convention was called to order at 10.50 A. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The Secretary read the Call for the meeting of the Special Convention as follows:

Church House, Philadelphia, Penna.,
July 23, 1928.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

In accordance with the provisions of Article III of the Constitution I hereby call a Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania to meet in the Church of The Holy Trinity, 19th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, October 2, 1928, at 9.30 A. M., for the purpose of electing a Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese and to act on a Report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Very faithfully yours,

THOMAS J. GARLAND,
Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Attest:
RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

The Secretary read the Report as follows:

The Secretary of the Convention reports: That in accordance with Canon III, Section II, 2, of the Diocese, notices of the Special Convention to be held on October 2, 1928, were sent, under date of July 15, 1928, to every Clergyman canonically resident in the Diocese, enclosing in the proper envelopes the similar notice for the Church Wardens of the Parishes in Union with the Convention, as set forth in Appendix C, Journal of 1928, together with the blank forms for the election of Lay Deputies, and the blank forms for the election of Lay Representatives of the Missions and Chapels qualifying under Canon II, Section V.

That a Preliminary Notice was sent out under date of June 6, and the Official Call was sent similarly under date of July 23, 1928.

That in accordance with Canon II, Section II, he has received from the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese a prima facie List of Clergy entitled to Seats and Votes at the Special Convention, herewith submitted. The Roll will not be called unless the Convention directs it. The only changes from last May are the removal of W. R. Agate, W. H. Dunphy, J. J. D. Hall, A. A. Lamb, A. J. McClure, H. F. Rigby, C. E. Spalding and the addition of W. O. Bellis, J. R. Crosby, A. K. Fenton, W. Powell, W. O. Roome, L. A. Shearer, the Rt. Rev. N. S. Thomas, F. W. Tomkins, Jr., C. B. Williams.

That in accordance with Canon III, Section II, 1, he has compiled the prima facie List of Lay Deputies entitled to Seats and Votes in the Special Convention, herewith submitted. The names of those Parishes which have not qualified will be read later.

That seven Missions and Chapels out of the thirty-three eligible under Canon II, Section V, have sent in certificates of Lay Representatives.

If an Alternate Deputy is to take the place of a Regular Deputy, notice must be given to the Secretary so that the Alternate Deputy may be placed on the List of Lay Deputies. When the name of the Alternate Deputy is thus inserted, he shall have all the power and authority of the Regular Deputy whose place he takes and shall serve for the balance of the session of the Special Convention.

All Deputies should register in the boxes placed in the vestibule of the Church for that purpose. This is very important in order to determine the validity of elections.

The President of the Standing Committee read the Consent of the Bishop to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor and the Assignment of Duties as presented to the Annual Convention, as follows:

"In accordance with the provisions of Canon XIII, Sec. II, of the General Convention, I hereby give my consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, and state the duties assigned to him, when duly ordained and consecrated, as follows:

"First: The sharing of Appointments for Confirmations, Consecrations, Ordinations, and other Episcopal Functions.

"Second: Assisting the Bishop in the work of our Church Institutions, presiding in his place at meetings, and in such administrative duties as may be arranged between us.

"Third: The full charge of all the Missions in the Diocese, including the appointment of Missionaries.

"It is my desire, acting with the advice of the Standing Committee and in conference with the Bishop Coadjutor, to assign to him from time to time further duties when he becomes sufficiently familiar with his work to undertake a larger share of responsibilities.

(Signed) THOMAS J. GARLAND,
May 1, 1928. Bishop of Pennsylvania."

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys read the following Certificate:

"To the Special Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

"I hereby certify that the Consents of a majority of the Bishops and of the several Standing Committees of the Dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America have been obtained, as required by Canon, for the Election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Pennsylvania 'for the reason of the Extent of Diocesan Work.'

(Signed) EDWARD M. JEFFERYS,
President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon III, Sec. VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provisions of the Canon on The Organization of Missions and all persons holding any office or trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats: The Rev. L. C. Washburn, the Rev. Frank Goostray, the Rev. L. M. Robinson.

Claims of Laity to Seats: Messrs. L. B. Runk, L. J. Morris, George Hall.

The Secretary reported that the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Election of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies at this Convention:

Grace, Hulmeville; S. Mark, Honey Brook; S. Luke, Chadds Ford; S. John, Pequea; Atonement, Morton; Messiah, Port Richmond; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia.

The Secretary reported that the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1927:

Atonement, Morton; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne pointed out that the disqualification under Article IV, Section 4, of the Constitution applied only to Lay Representation in the Annual Convention and not in a Special Convention.

The Rev. Granville Taylor, for the COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS, reported that the plan for seating the Deputies is virtually the same as at the last Annual Convention, eight pews being reserved for Lay Representatives at the rear of the Center Aisle, and that luncheon has been provided for all members of the Special Convention in the Parish House of the Church of The Holy Trinity.

The Rev. L. N. Caley, for the Committee on DISPATCH OF BUSINESS, offered the following Resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the hours of meeting be from 9.30 A. M. to 1.00 P. M. and from 2.30 P. M. to 5.30 P. M.
2. Resolved, That after reports have been received from the Committees on Claims to Seats, if there be any such reports, nominations for Bishop of the Diocese be made from the floor of the Convention, and that the names of those nominated be handed in writing to the Secretary of the Convention.
3. Resolved, That after the conclusion of the nominations and the appointment of Tellers the Convention shall engage in silent prayer for a period, to be followed by the recitation of the Veni Creator Spiritus.
4. Resolved, That the Convention then proceed to ballot as usual, in the ballot boxes provided for that purpose.
5. Resolved, That after the taking of the First Ballot, the Order of the Day shall be the Report of the Standing Committee.

Resolutions 1, 2 and 5 were each adopted; Resolutions 3 and 4 were withdrawn, as pertaining to the Report of Committee on Elections.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

The Committee offers the following Resolutions, which are based on the procedure at the election of a Bishop Coadjutor in 1902, in 1911 and in 1928:

(1) RESOLVED: That if more than one Ballot be required subsequent Ballots be taken at once after the announcement of the preceding Ballot.

(2) RESOLVED: That Nominations may be made before any Ballot and that no Nominating Speeches be permitted.

For the receiving of the Ballot for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor six sets of Ballot Boxes have been provided. The Clergy will vote at the Chancel end of the Church; from A to G inclusive at the head of the South Aisle; from H to M inclusive at the head of the Center Aisle; from N to Y inclusive at the head of the North Aisle. The Parishes will vote at the far end of the Church—the Suburban Parishes at the end of the South Aisle; the City Parishes from Advocate to S. George inclusive at the end of the Center Aisle; the City Parishes from S. James, Hestonville, to Zion inclusive at the end of the North Aisle. There will be no printed Ballot; write the name of the Candidate of your choice plainly on a slip of paper found in the pews.

Each Parish has but one vote, determined by a majority of the Deputies present; if the Deputies reach no agreement, the vote of that Parish is "divided" and therefore lost.

For the Committee,

RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

Mr. William White offered the following Amendment to Resolution 2:

RESOLVED: That after Nominations are completed, the Convention adjourn to meet as a Committee of the Whole and discuss those nominated.

It was suggested to insert after "adjourn" the words "to the Parish House" and the Mover accepted the substitution.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Substitute, which was adopted, on Division—Ayes 284, Noes 94:

RESOLVED: That the Nominator of any name be given two minutes at the time of Nomination to present information as to the Nominee.

The Report of the Committee on Elections, as amended, was adopted.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF CLERGY TO SEATS reported that no claims had been presented.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS reported that no claims had been presented.

The Chair appointed Tellers as follows:

For the Clerical Vote: The Revs. N. H. Caley, H. W. Jones, W. R. McKean, J. W. Norris, D. S. Wood, H. D. Baldy, P. G. Hall, C. H. Long, Thomas Parker, L. A. Shearer, W. M. Wagenseller.

For the Parish Vote: Messrs. E. R. Longstreth, J. E. Harper, A. P. Gerhard, Charles Cain, H. G. Reeder, H. A. James.

Nominations being in order, the following-named Clergymen were presented for Nomination and Appointment as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The Rt. Rev. Edward Makin Cross, S.T.D., by the Rev. E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D.

The Rev. Malcolm Endicott Peabody, by the Rev. A. E. Clattenberg, D.D.

The Rt. Rev. Paul Jones, by the Rev. J. P. Morris.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

as follows:

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The Standing Committee submits the following Report regarding a possible sale of the Church House.

Early in the summer the Bishop of the Diocese suggested to the Standing Committee that they consider the possible sale of the Church House, should a favorable offer be presented.

Having given this matter consideration, the Committee desire to recommend that the Convention consider the authorization of the sale of the Church House at such time and for such price and upon such terms as may be approved by the Standing Committee, the Executive Council, the Church Foundation, and the Bishop.

In order to bring the subject before the Convention, the Committee therefore offers for consideration the following resolutions:

1. RESOLVED: That the Convention hereby authorize the Church Foundation to sell the Church House, when in their judgment it is proper to do so, provided that the time of such sale and the price and terms are approved by the Standing Committee, the Executive Council and the Bishop.

2. RESOLVED: That in the event of such sale the proper authorities be authorized to make such changes and improvements as may be necessary in the present Bishop's House, so that it may be used as the Church House.

3. RESOLVED: That the Treasurer of the Diocese and the Standing Committee be authorized, out of the proceeds, to arrange for the purchase or erection of a Bishop's House, and to advance the amount needed for the purpose until such time as it may be refunded from the sale of the present Bishop's House.

4. RESOLVED: That authority be given to the proper authorities to provide a house for the Bishop Coadjutor, when so recommended by the Standing Committee and the Bishop.

5. RESOLVED: That the balance remaining from the proceeds of the sale of the Church House be invested, and, until the Convention otherwise directs, the income be used to reduce the assessments for the Episcopal Fund.

Mr. Bonsall offered Resolution 1.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Amendment:

RESOLVED: That consideration of these matters be postponed until the next Annual Convention, and that the Bishop, the Standing Committee, the Church Foundation and the Executive Council be requested to make recommendations in regard thereto to that Convention.

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1928.

The Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled as above, at 9.30 A. M., pursuant to a call issued by the Bishop of the Diocese.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Thomas James Garland, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Edward M. Jefferys, S.T.D., the Rev. Frank L. Vernon, D.D., Litt.D., and the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D.

The offering for the Diocesan Apportionment for General Missions amounted to $72.78.

The Special Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10.45 A. M.

The Secretary read the call for the meeting of the Special Convention as follows:

CHURCH HOUSE, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA
OCTOBER 16, 1928.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

In accordance with the provisions of Article III of the Constitution I hereby call a Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, to meet in the Church of The Holy Trinity, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, December 18, 1928, at 9.30 A. M., for the purpose of electing a Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese.

Very faithfully yours,
THOMAS J. GARLAND,
Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Attest:
RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

The Secretary read the Report as follows:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That in accordance with Canon III, Section 11, 2, he sent out notices under date of October 16, 1928, of the Special Convention of the Diocese to be held on December 18, 1928, to every Clergyman canonically resident in the Diocese, enclosing in the proper envelopes the similar notice for the Church Wardens of every Parish in union with the Convention, as set forth in Appendix C, JOURNAL, 1928, together with the blank forms for the election of Lay Deputies, and blank forms for the election of Lay Deputies, and blank forms for the election of Lay Representatives of the Missions and Chapels qualifying under Canon II, Section V.

That in accordance with Canon II, Section II, 1, he has received from the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese the prima facie List of Clergy entitled to seats and votes at the Special Convention, herewith submitted The Roll will not be called unless the Convention desires it. The only changes from last October are the removal of R. M. Doherty, A. K. Fenton, A. H. MacDonnell, F. D. Ward, C. B. Williams, and the addition of W. H. Anthony, C. H. Harrison, A. T. Helms, T. A. Meryweather, V. Rahard, H. T. Willson, W. R. Yeakel.

That in accordance with Canon III, Section II, 1, he has compiled the prima facie List of Lay Deputies entitled to seats and votes in the Special Convention, herewith submitted. Of the 141 Parishes in union with the Convention all have qualified, excepting Grace, Hulmeville; S. Peter, Great Valley; S. Mark, Honeybrook; S. John, Pequea; S. Luke, Chadd's Ford; S. Luke, Chester; Atonement, Morton; Messiah, Port Richmond; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. John, Northern Liberties, and S. Mary, Philadelphia.

That seven Missions and Chapels out of the 33 eligible under Canon II, Section V, have qualified.

If an Alternate Deputy is to take the place of a Regular Deputy, notice must be given to the Secretary so that the Alternate Deputy may be placed on the List of Lay Deputies. When the name of the Alternate Deputy is thus inserted he shall have all the power and authority of the Regular Deputy whose place he takes and shall serve for the balance of the session of the Special Convention.

All Deputies should register in the boxes placed in the Vestibule of the Church for that purpose. Quite a number failed to do so in October. This is very important as determining the validity of elections, as well as the attendance.

A count of the Deputies showed that more than the necessary majority of the Clergy and Parishes entitled to vote were present.

The President of the Standing Committee read the consent of the Bishop to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor and the Assignment of Duties as presented to the Annual Convention, as follows:

"In accordance with the provisions of Canon XIII, Sec. II, of the General Convention, I hereby give my consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor and state the duties assigned to him, when duly ordained and consecrated, as follows:

"First: The sharing of Appointments for Confirmations, Consecrations, Ordinations, and other Episcopal Functions.

"Second: Assisting the Bishop in the work of our Church Institutions, presiding in his place at meetings, and in such administrative duties as may be arranged between us.

"Third: The full charge of all the Missions in the Diocese, including the appointment of Missionaries.

"It is my desire, acting with the advice of the Standing Committee and in conference with the Bishop Coadjutor, to assign to him from time to time further duties when he becomes sufficiently familiar with his work to undertake a larger share of responsibilities.

(Signed) THOMAS J. GARLAND,
Bishop of Pennsylvania."

May 1, 1928.

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys read the following Certificate:

To the Special Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

"I do hereby certify that the Consents of a majority of the Bishops and of the several Standing Committees of the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America have been obtained, as required by Canon, for the Election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the reason of Extent of Diocesan Work.

(Signed) EDWARD M. JEFFERYS,
President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VII. Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the Provisions of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats: The Revs. Franklin Joiner, C. B. Dubell, Frank Goostray.

Claims of Laity to Seats: Messrs. J. L. Evans, L. J. Morris, George Hall.

The Rev. Granville Taylor for the COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS reported that the plan for seating of Deputies is the same as at the Special Convention in October last, and that luncheon has been provided for all members of the Special Convention in the Parish House of the Church of The Holy Trinity.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

The Committee on Elections offers the following Resolutions, which are in accord with the procedure of the Convention in recent elections for Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese:

1. RESOLVED: That after Reports have been received from the Committees on Claims to Seats, Nominations for Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese be made from the floor of the Convention, two minutes being allowed for the Nominator to present facts concerning the Nominee, the names of those nominated to be handed in writing to the Secretary of the Convention.

2. RESOLVED: That after the Nominations are closed the Convention shall engage in silent prayer for a period to be followed by the recitation of the Veni Creator Spiritus.

3. RESOLVED: That Nominations may be made before any Ballot and that Ballots subsequent to the First Ballot be taken at once after the announcement of the preceding Ballot.

For the receiving of the Ballot for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor six sets of Ballot Boxes have been provided. The Clergy will vote at the Chancel end of the Church; from A to G inclusive at the head of the South Aisle; from H to M inclusive at the head of the Center Aisle; from N to Y inclusive at the head of the North Aisle. The Parishes will vote at the far end of the Church—the suburban Parishes at the end of the South Aisle; the City Parishes from Advocate to S. George inclusive at the end of the Center Aisle; the City Parishes from S. James, Hestonville, to Zion inclusive at the end of the North Aisle. There will be no printed Ballot; write the name of the Candidate of your choice plainly on a slip of paper found in the pews.

Each Parish has but one vote, determined by a majority of the Deputies present; if the Deputies reach no agreement, the vote of that Parish should be reported "divided" and is lost.

On motion, each of the above Resolutions was adopted.

The Chair appointed the Tellers as follows:

For the Clerical Vote: The Revs. N. H. Caley, H. D. Baldy, P. G. Hall, H. A. Jones, C. H. Long, W. R. McKean, J. W. Norris, Thomas Parker, L. A. Shearer

For the Parish Vote: Messrs. Charles Cain, J. E. Harper, H. A. James, H. G. Reeder, W. A. Lippincott, Jr., J. L. Whitaker, H. H. Balbernie, R. M. Haines.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS reported that they had considered the Claim to Seats of S. John's Church, Northern Liberties, and inasmuch as that Church had been admitted to a Seat at the Special Convention in October last, they offer the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Church of S. John, Northern Liberties, be admitted to Seats in this Convention.

The Committee was directed to report further at the Annual Convention in regard to this Parish.

TESTIMONIAL OF ELECTION

We, whose names are hereunder written, fully sensible how important it is that the Sacred Order and Office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the

is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion or for viciousness of life; and that we know of no impediment on account of which he ought not to be ordained and consecrated to that Holy Office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally declare that we believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, of soundness in the Faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners and godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the Office of a Bishop to the honor of God and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example to the flock of Christ.

THOMAS J. GARLAND,
President of the Convention.

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

I hereby certify that the above testimonial was duly signed by a constitutional majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, holden in the City of Philadelphia on the Eighteenth Day of December, in the year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-eight.

Secretary of the Convention.

TESTIMONIAL OF ELECTION

We, whose names are hereunder written, fully sensible how important it is that the Sacred Order and Office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the

is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion or for viciousness of life; and that we know of no impediment on account of which he ought not to be ordained and consecrated to that Holy Office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally, declare that we believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, of soundness in the Faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners and godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the Office of a Bishop to the honour of God and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example to the flock of Christ.
